Derby city

Dozens of fishermen's shacks dotted landscape of four lakes in Chain 'O Lakes during Northern Illinois Conservation Club's annual ice fishing derby. Mother Nature cooperated by freezing lakes just in time for 29th annual event. Awards were given for smallest and largest fish caught during two-day event, in which more than 10,000 people participated. Lake County businessmen donated prizes to be auctioned off. # County Board rejects Rte. 53

by JOE SOULAK
NEWS CORRESPONDENT

Another no vote has been cast against the six lane, 17-mile, $300-million behemoth known as Rte. 53. Adding its collective voice to municipalities and thousands of petition signers along the route of the proposed expressway is the Lake County Board.

Members voted 13-10 this week along open-space lines against including Rte. 53 in what is known as the year 2010 Transportation Plan. That plan, by the Chicago Area Transportation Study, will become the blueprint for highway construction over the next 20 years.

Voting against the highway at the Feb. 14 meeting were James Mitchell of Deerfield, John Balen of Waukegan, Samuel Payne of Zion, Debbie Hallas of North Chicago, Norman Geary of Grayslake, Suzi Schmidt of Lake Villa, Carol Calabrese of Libertyville, James Dolan of Libertyville, F.T. Mike Graham of Libertyville, C. Richard Anderson of North Barrington, Bobbie O'Reilly of Long Grove, Bruce Hansen of Lake Zurich and John Reindl of Mundelein.

In favor of Rte. 53 are Delores Axelrod of Highland Park, James Fields of Antioch, Charlotte Kiesgan of Fox Lake, Matthew Miholic of Lake Bluff, Andrea Moore of Libertyville, Robert Neal of Wadsworth, Audrey Nixon of North Chicago, Eleanor Rostron of Waukegan, Donald Strenger of Lake Forest and Jim LaBelle of Zion.

This vote is similar to the board split in December when Geary was elected to succeed Fields as chairman.

The rejection will be used by the board to also convince state legislators to defeat the highway plan.

Convincing arguments were presented by both sides.

Opponents said extension of Rte. 53 northward from DuPage County will turn Lake County into a giant mass of subdivisions, shopping centers and paved parking lots.

Those in favor of the extension from the Cook County line to Grayslake say it is needed to relieve traffic congestion and provide an easy way for residents to get to and from work.

Anderson probably summarized it best for the opponents. "There are 10 north and south highways," he said of routes 41, 12, 59, 83 and others. "There are also

"Shoreline communities should start stocking up on plywood right now, because they sure are going to need it to board up businesses if Rte. 53 goes through."—F.T. Mike Graham dozens of arterials, but none of these have been improved or are adequate to handle today's traffic."

Rostron may have said it best for the Rte. 53 supporters. "You put your head in the sand if you throw away federal highway dollars that will give a bigger bang for the buck," she said. "This highway will give you a chance to relieve major congestion in west Lake County."

Several opponents said the shift of highway dollars, traffic and population to west Lake County will come at the expense of Waukegan and North Chicago.

"Shoreline communities should start stocking up on plywood right now," Graham prophesied, "because they sure are going to need it to board up businesses if Rte. 53 goes through."

Reindl said highways in other areas of Lake County will suffer by diversion of funds to Rte. 53. Mitchell said Lake County highway dollars are now being spent in other parts of the state, not here where they are needed.

"This is a chance to stop the impetus for high-density development," O'Reilly said of cornfields that will become subdivisions if the highway is constructed.

"If will be easy to develop cornfields," said Long Grove Village Admin. Cal Doughty in addressing the board. "We have a chance to stop from becoming the north parking lot for Rte. 53 like DuPage is the south parking lot," he said of the villages along either side of that highway.

Only positive recommendation for constructing the highway, Doughty noted, has come from the Lake County Economic Development Council. Geary noted that body is appointed, not elected like the County Board.

Some board members noted Rte. 53 was previously endorsed by the Northeast Illinois Regional Planning Comm. and the

Those favoring Rte. 53 were like Strenger. "We need good highways to get people between their jobs and homes," he said. "In Iowa where I-80 is located you can go for miles without seeing a house," he said in attempting to downplay the development aspect of the new ribbon of concrete.

Moore agreed. "That's true in Iowa and if we don't take the money the state will build a better expressway in the southern part of the state," the Libertyville resident said.

LaBelle also spoke in the same vein. "My part of the county depends on good transportation," the Zion resident said. "A well-planned regional corridor makes a good deal of sense. Those who oppose it take a short-sighted approach."

"When those in power get the money Rte. 53 will go through," Miholic said.

Neal, the county Republican party chairman, summed up the feelings of his followers: "I feel the majority of the people in west Lake County would like to see Rte. 53. It gives them another option for getting to their jobs and homes."

County Board in 1981 and 1982 resolutions.

"That was before there was a master plan for the county," Balen said. "What's the point of a comprehensive plan if you're going to blacktop everything?"

Schmidt, an environmentalist, called Rte. 53 "an assault on the environment."

Hansen summarized arguments for the foes: "This is the boondoggle of boondoggles. I'm appalled the state is going to spend $500 million and take 10,000 acres of land for a six- or eight-lane highway."

Round Lake Cub opens

Lake County grocer-entrepreneur Richard Wellon, left, addresses visitors and employees that attended opening party celebrating arrival of Cub Foods in Round Lake on Valentine's Day. Wellon said, "Our advantage is our people. We treat our employees with respect and courtesy and that's how they treat customers." Grand opening celebration was held following day with Round Lake dignitaries attending.

Lions care

In honor of Valentine's Day, the Fox Lake Rotary along with the Antioch Lions Club and numerous other Lions Clubs throughout Lake and McHenry Counties worked with The Eye Care Center of Lake County to provide eye care for people in need. Aided by client referrals from Catholic Charities, the Lions provided the funds to purchase glasses for men, women and children from the local area. Eye Care Center doctors James Crawford, O.D. and Thomas Bobka, O.D. and staff not only provided free eye exams and low cost frames and lenses but also transported patients to their office in Fox Lake in their private van.

Aerobics offered

Antioch Parks and Recreation and Mary Beth Lahey will begin a new aerobic session on Feb. 20. Lahey is a certified aerobic instructor. She has been teaching for the village's parks and recreation department for over a year. People interested in aerobicing will have their choice of evenings. One may attend class on Monday nights from 7:10 - 8:10 p.m. and/or Tuesday and Thursday nights from 6:30 - 7:30 p.m. Anyone who would like to attend all three classes for five weeks straight, the parks department will be charging only $25. If only two nights of exercising is desired, the parks department will be charging only $20 per session. The class will be held in the Antioch Lower Grade School Gym. One will be required to sign in each night they attend. For more information call the parks and recreation department at (312)395-2160.

Little blasts Long, backs village

Al Little, developer of Village Homes is anxious to respond to Robert Long's letter to the "Antioch News-Reporter" on Jan. 27 attacking the public use of private walking and jogging paths in the Village Homes development.

"Long has again outdone and undocumented charges. His deliberate misunderstandings indicate a total disregard for the truth," said Little.

"Had Long attended any of the appropriate meetings or even made one telephone call to village hall or to me, he would have learned the plans for Village Homes specifically do include sidewalks and the proposed pathways are in addition to the sidewalks," states Little.

Little claims the charge that "Mr. Little and his friends at Northfield Development, stand to gain from a virtually no-cost and no liability civic improvement of their subdivisions," is illogical as well as false.

"As stated publicly, I have no need or particular desire to open the development to the public. The offer to do so was an effort to open private land for jogging and walking paths to the general public," said Little.

Little gives one good reason for not opening the development because admission of the public to private lands could raise the cost of liability insurance for members of the Village Homes property owners association. It might be far easier and less costly for the homeowners association members to obtain coverage if outsiders were specifically excluded from their lands.

Little points out that the charge that these public paths would increase marketability of the planned homes is also illogical. "Why would property owners want to have the public using jogging paths adjacent to their home?" he asks.

Little chides Long for what he calls a lack of investigation of facts before making public attacks.

"Your lack of documentation taints your charges with a 'shoot-from-the-hip' mentality and leaves open to question both your seriousness and purpose(s) in making them," adds Little.

Little does an open space turn-about by adding "The 'offer' was made in the spirit of maintaining open space with fiscal responsibility. Removing thousands of acres from the tax rolls would cost the taxpayers millions of dollars. If each development set aside 10 percent of its area for open space, there would be more open space in Lake County than the forest preserve could ever afford to buy and the land would remain on the tax rolls.

Village, township want piece of $2 million pie

by GLORIA DAVIS

Both the Village of Antioch and Antioch Twp. are waiting on the recommendation of the Lake County Economic Development Committee, and hopefully a favorable vote by the Lake County Board, on two grants that are part of a larger $2 million grant program under consideration.

The village has filed for a grant for the construction of a water booster on Anita St.

The booster will alleviate the low water pressure in the entire northern section of the village. The lowest pressure can now be found in the northern quadrant of the Oakwood Knolls subdivision off of North Ave.

According to Tim Wells, village maintenance engineer, the cost of the entire project has been estimated at $90,000. The grant, if received will pay $53,000 of the cost with the village picking up the remaining $46,000 of the tab.

Approval of the grant request is expected sometime before April. Bids will then be taken on the project with construction start planned for early fall, according to Wells.

The part of the $2 million in grants being requested by the township is $48,200 for the removal of surface water in east Loon Lake.

Disabled Antioch Twp. residents will also benefit if another grant request for $15,645 to go to the Pace bus service, goes through since Antioch participates in the bus service along with Avon, Grant and Lake Villa Twps.

Urge pay of tickets

This is the time of the year that the Antioch Police Dept. gets ready to turn its unpaid parking tickets over to the village attorney for prosecution.

Antioch Police Chief Charles Miller says that there is still time for those who have unpaid tickets to get down to the village hall and pay the fine amount called for on the communique received from the village.

Once the village attorney starts proceedings, a larger fine(some have amounted to $350 in the past) plus court costs will be levied.

Emmons, Grass Lake focus on new programs

by LIZ SCHMEHL
(312)395-5380

I would like to start my article off this week with an engagement congratulation to a former long-time Antioch resident. Cari Bennett received a beautiful emerald and diamond engagement ring from her fiancé, Nick Maloof. Cari moved to Oxford, Ga., after living in the Antioch area for about 15 years. Her fiancé is from Moreland, Ga. Cari, remember to let us know when you set the wedding date.

This week the focus at Emmons School is on the second grade. They have been busy learning cursive handwriting and are very enthusiastic about the experience. Their teacher, Mrs. Wennstrom, is also pleased with their progress in learning to tell time and count money. Writing and illustrating their own stories is also very enjoyable to them. As the students learn about hobbies of famous Americans, they are also giving reports on their own favorite hobbies.

In March Emmons will sponsor a "Read Aloud Week". Students are busy writing letters inviting leaders in the community to everyone's life, thus encouraging them to read and to enjoy doing so. Sometime in April, there will be a Geography Bee at formation can be picked up from the counselors or through Mr. Mueller in the college and career center. There will be a variety show at ACHS at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, March 9, 10 and 11.

From 6 - 9 p.m. on Thursday, March 9, the College of Lake County and area high schools will conduct their annual "College Night." It will be held in the main building at CLC.

The Blue and Gold Dinner for Boy Scouts Pack 80 was a huge success. Scouts and family members enjoyed a delicious meal of beef, ham, and loads of pot-luck trimmings. Dens 1 and 4 received their Bear Badges, Den 2 received their Wolf Badges, Den 5 received various achievement segments. The Webelos received their Badges, Scarves, and Arrow Point Compass Badges. Following the dinner and awards was entertainment by the magician family of Bob Kadera and his sons and daughter.

The Scoutmistress for Pack 80 would like to thank the following people for all their help and support throughout the year and also for making the Blue and Gold Dinner a huge success: Cyndy Vandrush, Al Vandrush, Sharon Rossi, Pam Izenstark, Kitty Wiegel, Shahnaz Hansen, Debbie Friel, Trudy Grob, Sue Koppa, Debbie Diemer, Alice Fleming and Kelly Newton.

After the Blue and Gold Dinner, Dan Clarke, Sr., and Larry Edelman, Sr. had to catch the magician's run away bird. Well actually I guess it was a fly away bird. It happily perched on the gym rafters. Dan got on a big ladder and coaxed it off the rafter. Would you believe Larry actually caught it in flight. I understand he didn't believe it either and looked surprised to actually be holding it in his hand.

Alex Grob, I understand you were surprised to learn your dad has mental telepathy as he guessed which magician's card you had picked simply by reading your transmitted thoughts. Are you sure that was an ordinary egg beater Mr. Kadera had you turning?

The next meeting of the Antioch Junior Woman's club will be held on Thursday, Feb. 16. The program will be an Interior Decorating Workshop, presented by Mary Leben of "The Decorating Den." The date of the meeting is on March 14. The program will be "Teen Substance Abuse," presented by Elizabeth Houghton.

I began this column with an engagement announcement and I will end it with one also. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lengvenis of Antioch are pleased to let all the readers know their daughter, Susie, recently became engaged to Don Kolle. Don is the son of Betty Petersen of Antioch. Don and Susie are planning a June wedding and the ceremony will be performed at St. Peter's Catholic Church. After the wedding the couple plans to continue residing in the Antioch area. Congratulations to you both.

That's it for this week. Hope you enjoyed all the little tidbits from around you "Hometown." When you call remember to "Ask for The Lizard."

Emmons for grades four through eight. More details will be announced later. The students are encouraged to brush up on their Geography facts.

Grass Lake School is having a kindergarten round up for the 1989-90 school year. If you have a child who will be five years of age by Sept. 1, call the school office at (312)395-1550 and Mrs. Anderson will schedule an appointment for the screening tests.

Talk about bringing growth in the form of new jobs to the Antioch area — did you know that the new Burger King employs 70 people?

OK, enough is enough, two ample February snowfalls in a row has given me my fill of winter weather.

Valentine's Day and cherry trees always herald the coming of spring in Old Annie Mae's book!

For a real example of "one thing leads to another," Ernie Rizzo, the private detective that has been suing an Antioch resident for slander, called to tell me that that lawsuit has now been expanded to include the resident's attorney. Rizzo claims that he has evidence of slanderous remarks about himself being made by said attorney over a cordless phone. Rizzo claims that cordless phone messages can often be picked up on television channels.

Millburn offers parents pre-kindergarten help

Millburn School Dist. is offering district parents of three, four and five-year-old pre-schoolers a kindergarten preparation workshop at 7 p.m. on Wednesday, March 15 at the school.

Through the efforts of staff personnel, parents of future kindergarten students will have the opportunity to prepare their child for classroom experiences. Developmental areas discussed will be speech and language; small and large motor skills; academic skills; conceptual experiences and social and emotional adjustments to the classroom environment.

Parents of 1989-90 kindergarten children who attend this program will have the opportunity to schedule a specific time for their child's screening on May 3 or 4. Kindergarten registration will also be held on May 3 and 4 in conjunction with screening. Those parents who are unable to attend the program should call the school at (312) 356-8331.

Parents are requested to bring an original certificate of their child's birth (a hospital certificate is not a valid verification of a child's birth) at the time of the screening and registration. Kindergarten students must be five years old before Sept. 1 to be eligible for the 1989-90 school year.

In other Millburn news, eighth grade art students at Millburn have spent the past weeks working with the Collograph. Also known as relief print, the Collograph came into popularity in the United States in 1950 and is just one of the printing processes that draws from a variety of materials.

Dist. 34 slates sign-up

Antioch Grade School Dist. 34 will hold kindergarten screening and registration Feb. 20-23. All children entering either Antioch Lower Grade School or Oakland Grade School as kindergartners will be screened at Oakland this year. Registration for both schools will take place at Oakland during screening.

Parents should bring a birth certificate, hospital certificate or baptismal certificate for the child. Children must be five years old on or before Sept. 1, to enter kindergarten next fall.

The purpose of kindergarten screening is to offer parents an opportunity to ask a kindergarten teacher questions and to give parents ideas on how to work with their child's strengths and weaknesses before entering school.

Screening gives the school an idea of how to better meet the child's needs and make this first school experience a positive one. It is the district's policy to screen all children before entering kindergarten.

Parents may call their school now to set up kindergarten screening/registration appointments for Feb. 20-23.

Problem fence just goes away

Hooray! A chain-link fence on Dwight Ct. has been removed. It was removed earlier this month by Regal China Co., which owns the property. The fence was for an employee parking lot.

Since the fence protruded into the public-right of way it was slightly illegal. But no one cared until an industrial neighbor opened on adjoining Drom Ct.

The new company felt

Dwight Ct. would provide easier access onto North Ave. It asked the village board for help.

No one wanted to offend Regal China Co., a good member of the Antioch business and industrial community. Village board members felt the fence should come down.

Somehow the company got the word. As of last week the fence was down,

Antioch hopes to end home season on bright note

Antioch boys basketball fans will have their last chance to see the Sequoits at home Feb. 17 when they host Fenton.

Sequoit fans will be seeing a team which is gaining confidence by the free throw and could, with a little bit of luck, challenge for as high as third place in the North Suburban Conference.

That is because Antioch won two more games last weekend to improve its overall record to 12-11 and 9-5 in conference play. Fenton is in third, two games ahead of Antioch and the Sequoits, who end the season on the road at Zion-Benton Feb. 18 and at NSC leader Warren Feb. 21.

Chicago for the second straight time this season and in identical fashion. The win gives Antioch a four-game win streak.

In the first round, North Chicago beat Zion-Benton to obtain first-place status.

The Sequoits beat North in the league. But the Warhawks turned around and lost to Antioch in an away game the next night.

The loss spoiled a fine show on offense by Eugene Williams. Williams, who was inept the first half of the season, scored 29 points, 23 coming in the first half when North Chicago was leading.

"I looked and this guy wasn't even on the roster. In the second half, we put Brad Nauman on him and Nauman did a heckuva job," Antioch Coach Jeff Dresser said.

The Sequoits also turned in a solid defensive job on leading scorer Elbert Moore. They held Moore to six points in the first game and then 12.

"I give the credit to Scott Gooch. He did an excellent job on Moore. He never got an easy shot off," Dresser said.

The loss, coupled with a Zion-Benton 58-54 win over Fenton, puts the Warhawks (12-10, 10-5) in fourth place behind Fenton's 11-4 record and only one game ahead of Antioch's 9-5 mark.

"We are beginning to believe in ourselves now. It took a while for everyone to adjust to their new roles," Dresser said.

While holding down Moore, Antioch received a balanced attack. Gooch scored 23 and Matt Pelland 19, 11 in the fourth quarter. Nauman added 12. Junior Jeff Becker contributed nine.

"It just gives us some flexibility. I figure I have six starters," Dresser said of Becker's contributions.

"We play hard when we want to play hard," a dismayed North Chicago Coach Joe Wharton said.

Antioch led 14-9 early on a Gooch basket but North Chicago rallied on a 8-3 run for a 17-16 lead after one.

North Chicago maintained the lead in the second quarter but could never quite pull away from the visiting Sequoits.

Williams did entertain the home crowd with a thunderous dunk in the second quarter for a 25-22 lead. North Chicago led 37-34 at halftime.

Antioch gained a tie at 41-41 on a Gooch hoop in the third quarter.

Two Williams hoops kept the Warhawks ahead. Darrell Robinson and Jeff Patterson, tried to keep the lead a few minutes later.

But the visitors grabbed the advantage for good when Ryan Coskey, who had 13 points, had a field goal and two free throws in a 30 second span for a 49-47 lead. A Coskey free throw at the :14 second mark made it 54-53 after three.

The leaders quickly assumed the upper hand in the fourth. North Chicago was held to eight points while Antioch scored 15 in the first four minutes. A Coskey hoop seemed to seal matters for a 69-64 lead.

Antioch's biggest lead came at 75-66 with 1:07 left on two Chris Gibelhaus free throws.

Sam Johnson contributed 14 points for North Chicago, nine in the second half.

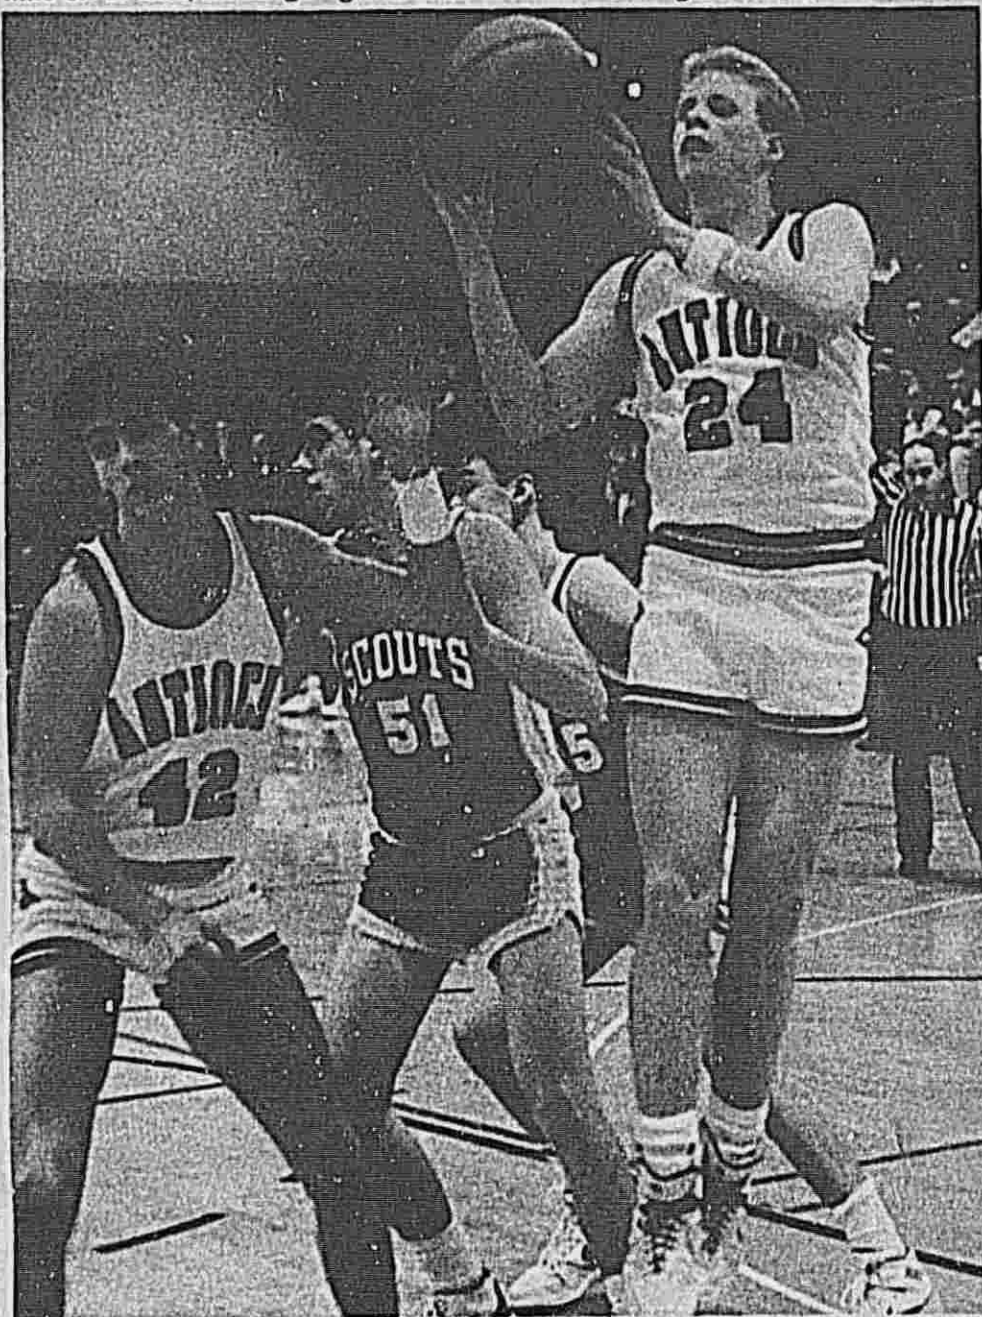

Both teams were coming into the game off wins.

North Chicago used a 24-points first quarter to get off to a good start in a 72-64 win at Zion.

Williams had a slam on an alley-oop pass from Moore.

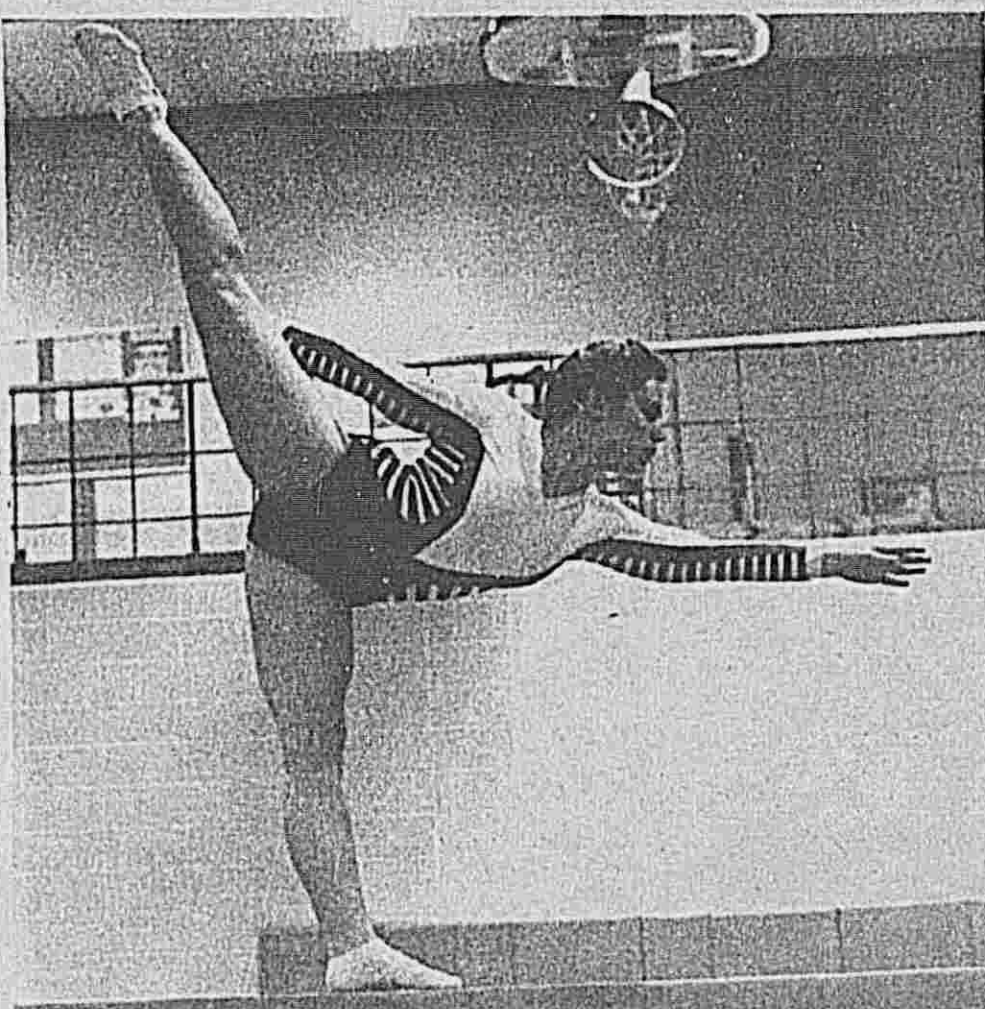

The Warhawks had a balanced attack as Moore had 18, Johnny Johnson 17, Calvin Scott 11 and Williams had 10.

Gooch and Coskey led Antioch to a 55-44 win against Libertyville. Gooch had 22 points and Coskey 18.

Rockets aim for strong show in home finale

Richmond-Burton's boys basketball team will be hoping to end the regular 1988-89 basketball season on a high note when the Rockets host Hampshire Feb. 17.

The game will be Parents Night and will cap off a busy three-game week for the Rockets. If all goes according to plan, the parents will be able to see the team complete a .500 season after winning just one game the year before. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

"That was our goal at the beginning of the year. Now we have to rededicate ourselves to that in the final week," Richmond-Burton Coach Scott Brunswick said.

The Rockets started the last week before the regional tournament at Genoa-

Kingston with a 9-12 overall record, 4-7 in Big Eight Conference play.

The Rockets had a good-news bad news two games in league and non-league play. They used a strong start to defeat Valley Lutheran 72-61 but then were never in the game against Marian Central in an 89-55 loss.

"We played very consistent against Valley. Everybody shared the offense and played good defensively. It was a great team effort," Brunswick said.

Roger Hauri led the winners with 22 points, Eric Miller had 16 Ryan Gardner and Jon Urban 11 and Adam Gardner 10 as five starters scored in double figures.

Valley Lutheran had come into the contest two games ahead of Richmond in the BEC standings.

Harvard wrapped up the conference title with a 63-48 win over Burlington Central while Hampshire crushed Huntley 83-69.

Richmond was just no match for McHenry County rival Marian Central the next night.

Marian led 24-14 after one quarter. Richmond cut the lead to seven at halftime, but a 25-9 run in the third sealed the Rockets' fate.

Kevin Carney was the main threat in the Rockets' fate, scoring 25 points while Tom Kruse had a strong game with 22 points. Hauri led Richmond with 17 and Miller had 14.

Schedule tot sign-up

Kindergarten registration/sign-up will be held at Grass Lake School on Thursday, March 9, and Tuesday, March 14.

To be eligible to attend kindergarten during the 1989-90 school year, according to new state laws a child must be five years old on or before Sept. 1, 1989. A birth certificate must be submitted on the sign-up date. Forms will be issued to each parent for the child's physical examination and immunization record, which must be completed before a child may enter school in the fall.

The sign-up on March 9 and March 14 involves testing by the kindergarten teacher, the learning disabilities instructor, the school psychologist, and the speech therapist. Because of the testing involved, it is necessary to have an appointment—call the school office at (312)395-1550. School fees will be collected during the annual fall registration in August.

Correction

It was erroneously reported in the Antioch News-Reporter that the man arrested for vandalizing Raymond Chevrolet was "a disgruntled customer." The Round Lake man was not a customer.

Serious business

Crunch time is a long way off for the spring village and township elections, but signs already are more than evident that the balloting in April will have a significant impact on the future. More is at stake than filling local governmental positions. Pressing open space questions are being debated. Direction of future growth and development is under careful scrutiny by the electorate.

Campaigning has an energizing effect. Candidates bring into focus community values. Citizens are called upon to get involved. The campaign itself is an opportunity to rekindle old fashion hometown spirit. In our mind, an individual has to be pretty jaded not to want to get acquainted with the issues, who's running and get out to the polling booth.

In the area served by Lakeland Newspapers, the positive election process is taking place in just about every community. Governmental tinkers and political scientists keep calling for elimination of the township system they deem outmoded, but in Ela Township, for example, there is a four-way race for supervisor. The township system is anything but archaic in Ela! In contrast, three area supervisors are unopposed: Alberta Miller, Grant;

William "Bill" Peterson, Vernon; and Gerald Beyer, Wauconda. Is this an indication of apathy? Hardly. Miller, Peterson and Beyer all are full-time politicians. Lack of opposition bespeaks of their power and popularity besides their competence.

At the village level, politics is humming. The retirement of four entrenched and competent mayors in the villages of Lake Zurich, Henry Paulus; Fox Lake, Dr. William Dam; Mundelein, Colin McRae; and Vernon Hills, Phil Ellis; has created a wide open atmosphere with three candidates each. Things will be anything but dull. Mundelein almost had a four-way race for mayor. Lake Villa is another village with three mayoral candidates in the race including incumbent Mayor Joyce Frayer. Among incumbent mayors without opposition this spring are Richard Welton, Gurnee and Chuck Amrich, Island Lake. In larger villages, stiff competition for the mayor's post is the rule, however.

Campaign time is exciting, a thoroughly worthwhile exercise in democracy. It's serious business for both the candidates and the electors. We wouldn't want it any other way.

State watches, not pays

By its own monitoring standards, the Illinois State Board of Education Watch List of school districts in serious financial difficulty isn't very exclusive any longer. So it is inappropriate and totally unfair to point a finger of scorn at three Lake County school districts placed on the latest Watch List—Millburn elementary, Grayslake consolidated and the Waukegan public schools.

State Supt. Ted Sanders noted that one of every five districts now is on the list, evidence that a large proportion of Illinois school districts are in deep financial trouble. Sanders adds the sobering thought, "It's getting worse."

The State Board uses a system which compares year-end balances in major operating funds to total revenues collected for the year. Districts on the list did not manage to meet the technical threshold of maintaining at least a five percent balance in key funds. A total of 198 districts is on the latest list.

Inclusion on the list is not intended to be a permanent blemish. Two county schools, Warren High and the Barrington schools, were removed from the Watch List effective Feb. 2. Districts on the list are encouraged to initiate steps to avoid serious problems. The state provides assistance in identifying alternatives.

In the whole, financial difficulties in the schools are not synonymous with mismanagement or extravagance. Generally speaking, money problems are related to insufficient state support and taxpayer resistance to support local tax increases. In Lake County, educational financing problems are not related to static or declining property values. Quite the opposite is true here. Property values are going up constantly and the tax base is increasing, but frequently not fast enough to keep up with the demands of growth. This is where supporters of controlled growth and advocates of no growth rally against the type of development that attracts more students.

The paternalistic and understanding tone of the State Board of Education can't be underestimated. Inclusion on the Watch List may smart, but there's a whole lot more to it than punishment. The board's helping hand is out. Now if only the helping hand grasped a check book, preferably a blank check.

Maintain the confidence

President Bush's proposal to bail out the ailing savings and loan industry should be welcomed by all Americans not only for the substance of the plan but the fact that our new chief executive is not shirking a nagging and noxious problem. George Bush is ready to lead.

The administration's original trial balloon regarding a depositor tax was shot down as it should have been. The plan was ill conceived and smacked of punishing those who had nothing to do with the creation of the problem. The president's decision to separate the Federal Home Loan Bank Board from the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corp. is an appropriate starting point. The perhaps not so subtle switch from a tax plan to an insurance plan doubtlessly will be more palatable.

Dealing with the staggering thrift crisis is a good example of why Americans feel so close to the man in the White House. Whatever happens ultimately to restore order in the S & L industry, actions of the president will have direct bearing on every citizen even those who do business with banking institutions which come under separate regulations. The impact of the bail out solution will be felt by all.

From our point of view, we hope the solution doesn't ignore punishment of thrift managers who not only violated the public trust but also violated regulations. The crisis was precipitated in many instances by outright criminality. In fairness, this fact should not be overlooked. It is also unfair to homogenize well-run banks with sinking thrifts.

Above all, the solution has to prop up public confidence in the banking system as a whole. Maintaining stability in the American economic system has to be both a starting point and a goal in bringing about a solution to the thrift mess.

Viewpoint

Wintry scene showcases trail of honesty

by BILL SCHROEDER

Honesty isn't a lost virtue, even in this imperfect world of ours.

A happy grandmother in Porterfield, Wisc., a small town near the Michigan Upper Peninsula, is convinced that a Wauconda snowmobiler is a candidate for the Snowmobile Hall of Fame, or America's Most Honest Person.

Marie Konell wrote this column to heap praise on Glenn Matula of Wauconda for finding her purse containing cash, checks, credit cards and photos of her grandchildren and returning the purse. "When citizens of Wauconda meet Glenn, thank him for being such an honest and kind man," Mrs. Konell wrote.

We not only wanted to thank him, a visit was in order. Talking to a certifiably honest man these days is newsworthy.

"I found Mrs. Konell's purse on the roadside in the snow while on a snowmobile trip near Iron Mountain, Mich.," related Matula, who is employed as a design engineer in Glenview. "I heard coins flying when the purse hit the ground. I thought the purse was left absent-mindedly on the roof. The purse fell off just as the car passed me."

Matula retrieved the purse and called Mrs. Konell at the end of the day's ride. He discovered she lived 60 miles away, so he decided to mail the purse when he got home. She was overjoyed at his consideration.

O.K., Glenn. Nice job. Good work. "But wait," Matula interjected. "There's more to the story. My partner, Ray Utsch of Kildeer, and I actually were on our way to Dick's Dugout at Greenland, Mich., about a 150-mile round trip, to retrieve his saddlebag containing his camera and valuables that was lost several weeks previously on another snowmobile trip. Someone turned it in, and we were making a trip out of it when I found Mrs. Konell's purse." Matula said Utsch, president of the Port Barrington Polar Bears' Snowmobile Club, never figured to see his saddlebag and camera again.

Matula was philosophical about the weekend of wonders. "I guess one good turn deserves another. Right?"

So right, to be sure. The warm stories of honesty and consideration go a long way to break cold winter weather. By the way, Matula and Utsch and their wives are serious snowmobilers. They put more than 600 miles on their machines the weekend of the purse and saddlebag discoveries.

TRADE BASES—In doing her part to save Ft. Sheridan, State Sen. Adeleine Geo-Karis suggested in a letter to Gov. John Sununu, White House chief of staff, that a couple of overseas bases be phased out in return for keeping Ft. Sheridan and Chanute Air Base in Illinois open. Makes sense to us. We haven't seen anywhere where overseas bases are being cut in an effort to reduce the federal budget.

HEADING EAST—Karen Wiltberger, former Lakeland Newspaper staff writer, will be heading east next year for a year's job as an English teacher in Japan. Wiltberger, who inaugurated the popular Entrepreneur feature in this newspaper's business section, will teach Japanese businessmen bent on sprucing up their English to do better in the international markets. When is the last time you heard of an American businessman studying Japanese, or any foreign language, for that matter?

Wiltberger now is studying for a master's in linguistics.

NEEDS HOME—Eddie's mom is a party girl. Her social life is more important to her than his upbringing. After the red-haired, freckled-faced 11-year-old was left alone for two days, Eddie came to the attention of Central Baptist Family Services. Caseworker Judy Brown said foster parents are being sought for Eddie. They'll be reimbursed for room, board, clothing and allowance. Someone who has a heart and cares can make a difference in Eddie's life. Brown would like prospective foster parents to call her at (312)356-1021 for further information.

LOOKING—Democratic heavyweights including House Speaker Mike Madigan and State Sen. Phil Rock, senate majority leader, are expected to look into high level maneuverings in the cabinet of Gov. James Thompson regarding extension of Rte. 53. Opposition party leaders reportedly are interested in whether Republican "fat cat" contributors are getting involved in the Illinois highway planning process. What Madigan and Rock uncover may shed new light on why the long dormant proposed Rte. 53 project suddenly got hot last spring.

Politically Speaking

by JOSEPH SOULAK

After six elections and 24 years as Fremont Twp. clerk, Barbara Behm is going to try in April for the brass ring.

She is running for the township supervisor post being vacated after 18 years by George Bell. Of all the township officials on the ballot this spring, she is the only one with opposition.

There also will be something different about this election in Fremont. For the first time in 12 years the name Behm won't be on the ballot twice. Barbara's husband, Fred, decided not to run for reelection as township trustee.

Barbara has extra incentive to win this one. Co-founder with Warren Twp. Sup. Robert Depke of the Lake County Twp. Officials Assn., she has been active in the umbrella Illinois Twp. Officials Assn. In that organization she was president for four years of the clerk's division. Right now she is second vice president of the whole shebang. Depending upon whether those ahead of her serve one or two year terms, she will be president in her own right one of these days. But first, she has to get elected locally. Which is why she wants to win in April.

Why does she want to be supervisor? Without hesitating she promptly replies: "Next to my family and religion I think township government is the greatest thing going."

For those who like to keep track of such things, 11 different school districts will have tax increases on the April ballot.

They are Antioch Grade School, Aptakisic-Tripp Elementary, Lotus Elementary, Emmons Elementary, Fremont Elementary, Grass Lake Elementary, Grant High School, Highwood-Highland Park Elementary, Round Lake Schools, Woodland Elementary and Zion Elementary.

Two libraries will also ask for tax increases—Ela Area and Lake Villa Dist. libraries.

Illinois' one-year-old "grass tax" stamp seems to be a bust. Sellers say they are more popular with stamp collectors than drug dealers.

Drug dealers must buy the stamps and affix them to substances they sell. Price begins at $5 a gram for marijuana and increases to $250 a gram for other drugs.

A dealer caught without the proper stamps faces penalties equal to four times the tax, plus up to three years in prison and a $10,000 fine as a tax evader—in addition to criminal charges.

Last year the state sold 827 stamps, including 823 of the $5 ones for marijuana.

In 1988—the first year the tax was in effect—seven tax assessments were levied against pushers for $68,200. As of yet, none of the money has been collected.

Sen. David Barkhausen (R-Lake Bluff) of the 30th Dist. sponsored the legislation. He predicted more of a windfall than in Minnesota, which served as a model for the Illinois law. That state made $19 million in assessments last year and has collected $608,000.

Wonder if Minnesota has any other laws that aren't on Illinois books?

Fiscal conservative he is, Congressman Philip Crane (R-Arlington Heights) of the 12th Dist. doesn't like 50 percent pay raises any more than the public. He is going to do more than vote against the $135,000 salary for congressman rejected earlier this month.

He is the co-sponsor of a bill to have pay raise legislation considered in the fall of an election year. That way the big talkers and spenders will have to defend themselves when they go home and ask for votes.

"We got a lot of phone calls on this issue," said district secretary Jack McKenney, "and a few teabags. One was opened and the loose tea dumped in an envelope."

Anti-abortion foes in Lake County are doing what little they can to keep the movement alive. You won't see any of them arrested or thrown in jail for disturbing the peace.

Focus of the Lake County Right to Life movement is education, said President Bonnie Quirk of Libertyville. A mother of six, she works 12-hour days as an intensive care nurse at Medical Center of Lake County. She and others fulfill speaking requests from the Grayslake office.

"Each Sunday from 3 to 4 p.m. we march in front of Lake Forest Hospital," Quirk said of the crowd of five to 25 that shows up, depending on the weather. This is because it is the only county hospital to offer abortions.

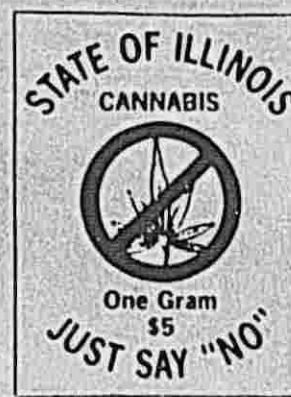

Even if the local pro-lifers are not as outspoken as their national counterparts, they still believe. They hope the U.S. Supreme Court will overturn this year the controversial Jan. 22, 1973, ruling to allow abortion on demand. Quirk is praying each day, as her telephone answering machine says.

One of the four persons in the 22-member Illinois delegation in the House voted for the 50 percent pay hike.

Rep. John Porter (R-Wilmette) of the 10th Dist. did so for two reasons. First, he feels congressmen should be paid by the public and not honorariums or speaking fees that beholds them to the benefactor. Second, he has consistently supported a raise for himself, judges and others included in the sweeping bill. To change his vote because of teabags in the mail or public opinion would be hypocritical.

Barbara Behm

Grass stamp

"Anyone who runs for or serves in Congress to get rich is under a delusion," Porter said.

Getting a little weary of the political wars is John Balen. The outspoken County Board member from Waukegan said he is getting so tired he might hang it up when his term expires next year.

But don't count on it. Balen doesn't like things that aren't worth fighting about.

His 22-1/2 years makes him the second ranking member of the board behind Chairman Norman Geary. Balen was the first Democrat elected to the board in 100 years back in 1961. As a leader in the union at the U.S. Steel Co. Waukegan Works, Balen still talks the role.

When Balen was first elected there were something like 22 municipalities in Lake County. During his tenure as county board chairman from 1974-76 there were 39. Today there are 49.

"There are just too damn many cooks around to spoil the broth," Balen said about diverse opinions on the future of Lake County. "I'm getting tired of dealing with all of these people and their ideas."

Graham to present April 1 workshop

"Mike" Graham, Libertyville Twp. supervisor and Lake County Board member, will co-present a session entitled "political Planning for Preserving Natural Areas" at the ninth Northern Illinois Prairie Workshop with: Dave Eubanks of Open Lands Project; Bill Borden of DuPage Environmental Awareness Center and the Sierra Club; and Valerie Spale of Save the Prairie Society, Salt Creek Greenway Assn. and Illinois Nature Preserve Commission.

The Workshop will be held Saturday,

April 1, beginning at 9 a.m. and lasting until 5 p.m. at Northeastern Illinois Univ. (Bryn Mawr and St. Louis Aves. in Chicago.)

The Census Bureau will collect labor force data for the Lakeland area the week of Feb. 19-25, according to Stanley D. Moore, director of the bureau's Chicago regional office.

The local data will contribute to February's national employment and unemployment picture to be released March 10 by the

Pizza restaurant opens

by KIM BOLTON
BUSINESS EDITOR

Chris and John Katris, owners of Las Vegas Restaurant and the Lake Street Plaza in Antioch, have opened Portofino's

Pizza in their shopping center.

The new restaurant was opened in a joint venture with Chris' brother-in-law, Anastasios Tsiopoulos.

Portofino's Pizza not only offers pan and thin crust pizzas, but also chicken, ribs, shrimp, sandwiches, gyros and salads for eat-in, take-out or delivery service.

"So far it's going real well," said co-owner Chris Katris. "It's better than we expected."

Las Vegas Restaurant and Portofino's Pizza employ the wives and children of all three owners.

Chris Katris, the first member of the Katris family to enter the restaurant business, got his start by running the White Fox Den in Burlington, Wis. He plans to return to running the Las Vegas Restaurant as soon as his brother-in-law learns the pizza business.

Portofino's Pizza is located at 422 Lake St. Plaza. The number is 395-7795.

It's sad.

We can't take it for granted anymore that our children will make it to school, or the store, or the movies, and back.

We can't be sure it's safe for them to play in the park, or the schoolyard, or even the front yard, alone.

Until we can again, until they're finally out of danger, we're turning every Edison employee into family. To give kids in trouble or lost someone to turn to, someone who cares, when there's no police officer close by.

It's not a solution to the problem by any means, but it's a start. A team effort that all of us at Commonwealth Edison take very seriously. Especially the hundreds of crews we have working out on the streets.

Your kids can spot our trucks a long way off. When they see that big E in our logo, or the E-team emblem, they'll know they're among friends.

Please, tell 'em to look for us.

Illinois boaters must pay tax and user fees

Some Illinois boat owners soon could be navigating troubled waters as part of a new enforcement effort by the Illinois Dept. of Revenue against sales tax and use tax cheaters.

Approximately 400 follow-up letters are being mailed to boat owners who failed to respond to an initial contact by the Dept. of Revenue. Revenue director Roger Sweet said these letters are of a more serious nature and, if ignored, could bring about a criminal investigation.

Sweet said investigators obtained basic boat ownership information from several sources on a sample of 20,000 boats that are moored in Illinois. From that sample, investigators identified the owners of 787 large, late model boats and mailed questionnaires to them. The department received 385 responses and found that 60 boat owners (16 percent) owed sales or use tax. Since late December, more than $110,000 has been collected.

"The fact that our questionnaire found such a high percentage of boat owners that owed sales or use tax tells us that this is a serious problem," said Sweet.

Illinois law states that when a boat or any tangible personal property is purchased for use in this state, but no sales tax is paid at the time of the purchase, then the purchaser must file a return with the Dept. of Revenue and pay the tax. Any person who willfully violates this law may face criminal charges which carry penalties of up to one year in prison, plus $1,000 fine.

In attempting to identify boat owners who have evaded paying taxes on the purchase of their boats, the department has requested and received the cooperation and assistance of the following agencies:

- Illinois State Police Marine Patrol Unit;
- Illinois Dept. of Conservation, Registration and Title Unit;
- Waukegan Port Dist.; and

- United States Coast Guard.

In addition, Illinois is a member of the Great Lakes States Cooperative Tax Enforcement effort which means the delivery of boats purchased out-of-state can be tracked as well.

Boat owners with questions about sales and use tax can contact the Taxpayer Assistance Information Center at their local Dept. of Revenue office or they can call the department toll-free at 1(800)732-8866.

Carmel to hold repeat test

Current eighth grade students who were unable to take the first placement examination for next year's freshman class at Carmel High School will have another opportunity to take the test. The test will be administered at Carmel on Saturday, Feb. 25, beginning at 8:30 a.m.

In order to make arrangements to take the test it is necessary to contact the Principal, Sr. Diane O'Donnell, at (312)566-3000.

The previous testing took place earlier this month. According to the Rev. William J. Harry, O.Carm., the School expected some 350 eighth graders to take the test. 472 students actually took the test.

"We are gratified by this very obvious statement of support from these young people and from their families", Harry said. "We have always believed that there is a large group of people who appreciate the combination of quality education and the installation of values which we strive to provide."

'Bowl for Kids Sake' to aid Big Brothers, Sisters

by TERRY RIEDL
NEWS CORRESPONDENT

At the second and third 'Bowl for Kids Sake' events being held by Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Lake County, participants can help raise money to recruit big brothers, big sisters, or couples for children needing a special friend, said Saralynn Reedy, executive director of the organization.

For every six bowlers who sign up 15 or more sponsors, they can make a dream come true for one child in need of a caring adult.

Many adults may not have the time to be a big brother or sister, but they can make a big difference in a child's life by participating in 'Bowl for Kids Sake.' A completed sponsor sheet is the price of admission at these dates and locations: Sunday Feb. 26, Antioch Bowling Lanes, W. Rte. 173, Antioch, and Sunday March 12, Bertrand Bowling Lanes, 2616 Washington, in Waukegan.

Reedy said that companies may challenge other companies and groups of friends may also bowl. Call (312)360-0770 to register. An earlier bowling event was held at the Mundelein Lanes. The goal this year is to raise $100,000, and this money is used for the program in Lake County only. In 1988, this program served 130 children, and officials hope to serve 150 or more children in 1989. The program is five years old in Lake County.

Reedy said there are many kids in Lake County waiting for a big brother or sister. These children have a void in their lives and need the individual attention of a caring adult, and volunteers need not be married, as single adults also are welcome.

Reedy explained that this year, the big sister program is accepting applications from pregnant girls up to the age of 18. Hopefully, their big sister will help guide. When a girl is matched with a big sister, the focus of their relationship will not be on her as a young mother, but as a person. These girls are often concentrating on pleasing everyone but themselves because of the "mistake" they made. them toward positive aspects of life such as continuing school and having friends.

Jane Eppel and little sister Lisa, 14 years old, go to picnics, shows, shopping, for a drive, and sometimes they just talk. Eppel feels that this is a good program because it gets the kids out of the house, and she's helping someone who doesn't have both a mother and father. Eppel said that these kids really need an older friend to talk to, someone they can trust, because she realizes that kids today are under tremendous peer pressure, more so than when she was younger. Eppel likes being someone Lisa can depend on.

Stan Kutin and little brother Dan, who is 12 years old, have gone to picnics, basketball games, and bowling. He said they mainly do physical activities such as mowing the lawn and cutting down trees. Dan said they like to walk in the woods, play pool, and plan to go camping. Dan seemed very proud when he explained how he and Kutin chopped down a tree together. This was quite an accomplishment for him.

Kutin explained that it is very fulfilling to share and teach Dan new skills and he enjoys watching him grow. Dan said that for he and Kutin's first anniversary, his mother got them T-shirts reading "Big Brother Stan and Little Brother Dan." I asked Dan if they ever had any disagreements and he replied, "We sure do, just like brothers!"

Drug, alcohol center will find new home

by JOE SOULAK
NEWS CORRESPONDENT

Construction of a new drug and alcohol treatment facility in central Lake County is on a fast track.

It will be next to the Avon Twp. hall at Washington St. and Hainesville Rd. in Round Lake Park.

Ground could be broken in April and the facility operating by late fall.

The $700,000 to $800,000 building will be the new home of the 22-year-old, non-profit Northern Illinois Council on Alcoholism and Substance Abuse (NICASA). Consolidated at the new location will be an outpatient program in Fox Lake, a larger outpatient facility in Waukegan and a halfway house in Waukegan known as Bridgestone.

Identical, but expanded, outpatient and residential treatment for drug and alcohol abuse will be offered at the new location.

The three-wing building will have 3,000 square feet for treatment on an outpatient basis and 4,000 square feet for a 14-bed facility offering residential overnight treatment for days or weeks at a time.

"Clients referred to us range in age from youths to adults," Director Judy Fried said. For some it is an alternative to hospital treatment. Others will be referred by hospitals. Some will be in the overnight residential facility and work during the day.

Unlike Bridgestone, which serves both those with and without jobs, those at the new facility will work at full-time jobs during the three to six months of treatment.

Clients pay on a sliding scale according to their means. This helps underwrite part of the program. Other support comes from donations, United Way and the Illinois Dept. of Alcohol and Substance Abuse. Some of those enrolled are referrals from the state following their arrest for drunken driving.

Added support is being sought from industries like Abbott and Baxter laboratories, Outboard Marine Corp. and others with representatives on the NICASA board. An Abbott Laboratories architect is designing the building at no cost.

"Large companies see this kind of a facility as an alternative to more expensive hospital treatment for their employees," Avon Twp. Norman Geary said.

It was through Geary's efforts the facility is being located in central Lake County.

Taking care of business

It takes three generations of the Hook family to run their Lakeland area businesses which include Hook's Lumber in Grayslake, and Marvin's Windows with locations in Grayslake, Lake Bluff, Libertyville, and a future store in Carpentersville. From left are Tom, John and Everette Hook. Or, as Everette calls them, "the father, son and holy ghost." Everette, 94, works every day, beginning at 5:30 a.m., in his son's lumber and hardware business.

3 generations personalize service

by KIMBERLY BOLTON
BUSINESS EDITOR

The ability to offer family-style service in their lumber and hardware business keeps the threat of competition out of the minds of the Hook family in Grayslake.

"We run our own business and we don't pay that much attention to competition," said Everette Hook, 94.

Hook, a spunky man who likes to sing and tell stories, was born in 1895, the year Grayslake was established. He has worked in the Grayslake lumber yard for 70 years. He managed the former Wilbur Lumber Co. for 50 years before his son, John, purchased the business in 1969 and changed the name to Hook's Lumber.

"What happened was Wilbur decided to sell their yards here where I was managing, and in Burlington, Wis., where John was the manager. John came to me and said he wanted to buy the Grayslake yard. I said, 'This has always been a good yard. Buy it. And he did and he's been here ever since,'" Hook said.

Now John's son, Tom, is the third generation of family management at the company. And according to his grandfather, Tom is the reason for the store's latest successes.

After adding hardware to the lumber yard's stock, Tom opened Marvin's Window Centers in Grayslake, Libertyville, Lake Bluff and will soon be opening another in Carpentersville.

"I give Tom credit for a lot of this," Hook explained. He added that Tom's youth helps him to be able to take

"That's what's good with the family business. You always have a young upstart to get you going again."
—Cathy Troemel

chances his father and grandfather might not take without him.

Tom's sister, Cathy Troemel, who works part time as a bookkeeper at the lumber and hardware store, said Tom is the "visionary" in the group.

"That's what's good with the family business," Troemel said. "You always have a young upstart to get you going again."

Hook believes that retirement is the worst thing that can happen to a person. He arrives at the Seymour St. business at 5:30 a.m. every day and doesn't quit until 4:30 p.m.

"That's why I'm here today. If I didn't have my work, I'd be dead. Every friend and relative I've had who has retired is now dead. Work is the secret to long life," Hook said.

Hook has been working since he was 12. His first job was working for Dr. Palmer on Lake St. in Grayslake caring for horses and doing odd jobs. He said his father, who always kept him working, liked to say, "A busy boy is out of mischief."

It is no secret that the Hooks are a close family. Their employees say they are a "very, very pleasant family to work with."

Their customers keep coming back because of their personalized service.

"The competition has been there, but the family style of business always prevails," said John Waldenstrom, a Hook's customer and owner of John Waldenstrom Development Company Inc. of Grayslake.

Waldenstrom added that he chooses to use Hook's for his business needs because the family members will go out of their way to get the products he requires.

"Even if it's not a stock item, they'll get it," Waldenstrom said.

An example of how closely knit the Hook family is, is how they spend their Sundays. Everette Hook's wife, Kathryn, has been cooking Sunday dinners for the entire family for 65 years. Dinner guests consist of a party of at least 20 children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren "using their house as a racetrack," Hook laughs.

Everette and Kathryn Hook will celebrate their 66th wedding anniversary on Feb. 21. Every morning they rise together at 4:30 a.m. and when Everette is not working, which is only a few hours a day, they love to sing and play the piano together.

"I can sit and listen to her play all night," Hook said of his 84-year-old wife.

Hook says one of the changes that's amazed him the most in his lifetime is that of bikini styles. After seeing the 1989 issue of Sports Illustrated's Swimsuit Edition he joked, "If I live another 50 years, I'm going to live in a nudist colony. I hope I can last!"

Selects officers

LAKE COUNTY—The United Way/Crusade of Mercy has selected its officers for 1989, including the re-election as chairman, Thomas A. Donahoe, vice chairman of Price Waterhouse. Other officers elected include Vice Chairman Theodore R. Martin, area manager-Des Plaines Valley Area of Commonwealth Edison Co.; Vice Chairman Eugene A. Tracy, chairman of Peoples Energy Corp.; Treasurer Andrew M. Grant, vice president-planning of Protection Mutual Insurance Co.; and Secretary H. George Mann, capital partner of McDermott, Will & Emery.

Industrial park

FOX LAKE—The village is moving forward in its efforts to obtain an industrial park. Village board members have sent Hydra Corp. of Wauconda a non-binding letter of intent describing the village's contributions to the development of an industrial park. Hydra has presented a proposal for a 19-site park on 20.5 acres off of Rollins Rd. west of the Chain O'Lakes Redi-Mix plant.

Manor auction

GURNEE—The contents of one of Gurnee's landmark buildings will be auctioned off Feb. 18. Contents of the Rustic Manor will be auctioned beginning at 11 a.m. at the restaurant.

Await grants

ANTIOCH—The Village of Antioch and Antioch Twp. are awaiting approval from the Lake County Board and the U.S. Dept. of Housing and Urban Development, following a recommendation from the county zoning and planning committee on two federal grants. The village has filed for a grant of $53,425 for the construction of a water booster station on Anita St. to improve the water pressure in the north end of the village. The entire project will cost $90,000, with the village footing the rest of the bill. The township has filed for a grant of $48,200 to be used for surface water pumping in east Loon Lake.

Dispatchers added

VERNON TWP.—An increase in number of dispatchers from one to five will save plenty of money for the Vernon Fire Protection Dist., as the job of dispatching will no longer need to be done by firefighters during evening hours. Cost savings was the main reason for approaching the board of the fire district with the idea of more dispatchers, according to Fire Chief Ted Tarr. This proposal was made after a single previous dispatcher had been fired, Tarr said, adding that the fifth dispatcher called for in the proposal has just been hired.

Punishing provision

MUNDELEIN—The Dist. 75 Board of Education has agreed to form a committee which will recommend whether corporal punishment should continue to be allowed in district schools. The board did not make a motion to this effect when discussion was held at their latest meeting, since such a motion was not listed on the agenda. However, board members concurred that a motion of this type would be offered at their next meeting. The board room was filled with parents who oppose the provision found in the proposed student discipline policy which would allow corporal punishment.

Street repair

NORTH CHICAGO—North Chicago Ald. Jerome Hodge, chairman of the streets and alley committee, said at a committee meeting that city streets are in need of repair. New Ald. Richard Bradshaw suggested a 1983 priority list be updated.

Treatment plant

LAKE VILLA—Lake Villa still does not have any set plans for a sewer treatment plant. The village may send sewage to Fox Lake, it may build a sewer treatment plant at the north end of the village, or it may build a sewer treatment plant at the south end of the village. Lake Villa officials want some type of set plan soon.

Park District

LINDENHURST—The Lindenhurst Park Dist. is still fighting for its life. A decision is expected today on whether or not a referendum will be on the April 4 ballot to dissolve the park district. The park district was formed in Lindenhurst less than one year ago.

Present subdivision

WADSWORTH—Wadsworth Village Board members heard a plan for a new subdivision called Mill Creek Woodlands. The subdivision would include 37 homes. It would be bordered by I-94 on the west and Mill Creek Rd. on the east.

Hainesville listens

HAINESVILLE—The Hainesville Village Board reversed last month's decision to extend Softball City operating hours from 10:45 to midnight, after a long confrontation with about 100 reasonable and thoughtful residents who argued their property values and peaceful existence would be reduced by the midnight curfew given to Softball City. After a lengthy discussion, it was brought out by Village Atty. Michael Siemen that if the board did not reverse the decision that night, the village would be locked into the two-year extension of operating hours previously granted. A reversal of a board decision must be made within a 30-day period, Siemen explained. Softball City's curfew will fall back to 10:45.

School construction

PRAIRIE VIEW—Stevenson High School officials are doing design work for the final phases of construction projects called for in a 1984 referendum. A building which will be located at the north end of the football field will have three parts: administration center, maintenance garage, and concession stand for activities taking place at the football field. In a separate project, at least 14 standard classrooms and possibly science laboratories will be built by the fall of 1991. This two-story addition would be located at the south side of the school. Some field events may have to be moved, as these have been held where the three-portion building is to be constructed, between the track and ball diamonds.

Athletic complex

LAKE ZURICH—The Village of Lake Zurich and Lake Zurich School Dist. 95 are considering splitting the cost for an athletic complex located northeast of the high school.* Included in the $410,000 cost are a baseball field, two smaller softball fields, one football/soccer field and six tennis courts.

Warren loss
ends seasonBy STEVE PETERSON
SPORTS EDITOR

"It was a heckuva long trip for nothing," one Warren fan shouted as the final seconds ticked off the clock at Cary-Grove High School.

Warren had just lost to Libertyville 58-44 - the fourth straight time the Blue Devils had been beaten by the Wildcats this year. And while the comment may have seemed appropriate at the time, it takes a look back to November to realize what this team has truly accomplished.

The Blue Devils started practice sessions with senior Crystal Cobb, who had just announced she had signed a national letter of intent to play for Arizona State University. Still, the lineup was Cobb and several question marks.

Although this year's team did not make a return trip to the Elite Eight in Champaign, the sectional opener was probably a realistic goal. The team the Blue Devils lost to was packed with senior leadership and had not lost a game since Christmas.

"They beat us in every phase of the game," Warren Coach Bruce Campbell said after a 22-6 season.

The Blue Devils came into the game undermanned in two respects. In a courageous decision, Monica Brandt, who scored 15 points and had 15 rebounds in (continued on page 44)

Rebounding, Brandt, Cobb lead
Warren to regional championshipBy STEVE PETERSON

In football, it is said that whether a team loses or wins depends on how the line plays, how the guards block or how the pass rushers pass rush.

Basketball's version of "in the trenches" is rebounding and that is the main reason Warren's girls basketball team advanced to the sectional level for the third straight year. The Blue Devils topped Round Lake 54-41 for the championship of the Antioch Regional.

Warren, which is not used to such a luxury, used a height advantage and strong play from players other than star scorer

Warren Coach Campbell said.

Brandt scored 11 of her 15 points in the first half as the Blue Devils, 21-5, began to pull away.

"She can penetrate and dish the ball off," Campbell said of Cobb.

Warren's zones forced Round Lake to try and beat them from three-point range. High scorer Cyndie Donner did hit three straight at one point, but that was not enough to make a dent in the lead.

"You have to give credit to the people playing under the basket. Heather, Melissa, Monica also," Campbell said.

Warren led from the start as Round Lake began a habit of turnovers early. Seven final result may have been disappointing for Edge's crew, but not the season.

"Our girls had a fine season. They have a lot to be proud of," Edge said.

That's what we try and instill in them the whole year. When it's their turn to come forward, hopefully, they'll be ready.—Warren coach, Bruce Campbell

Crystal Cobb to end the Panthers' season. Cobb scored a "quiet" 17 points while the Blue Devils received 15 rebounds and 15 points from junior Monica Brandt. Warren won the crucial category by a 42-19 margin.

"Our girls are all nice girls and they work hard, but they just do not rebound. It looked like we were in pretty good position but that was the key to the game. We had to work so hard for our points because we are not big. When you don't have a good inside game, you have to go to the outside to hurt a team like that," Round Lake Coach Gary Edge said after his team's season ended at 16-7.

Warren Coach Bruce Campbell credited the inside play of Melissa Webster and Heather Olejak as keys to the dominance on the boards.

While Cobb fell short of her average, Campbell praised her other facets of the game such as passing and defense.

And what of Brandt's best-of-the-season performance.

"That's what we try and instill in them the whole year. When it's their turn to come forward, hopefully, they'll be ready,"

Panther miscues in the first quarter gave Warren a 15-8 lead. Donner, who had 20 points, hit three straight three-pointers to bring Round Lake to within four but Warren held on for a 17-14 lead after one.

Cobb was hit with only the second technical of her career within the first 30 seconds of the second quarter. All Round Lake could get out of the opportunity to cut the lead was a Regina Meeks free throw.

Warren then built up an eight point lead on baskets by Olejak, Webster and Brandt.

Round Lake managed to stay within shooting distance the rest of the quarter. A Charlene Bostick hoop cut the lead to seven and Warren led 33-24 at halftime.

The Blue Devils simply took over in the third quarter. A 16-4 run built the lead to 19 points by the midpoint of the fourth quarter.

Guard Peggy Amedio, who had 11 points, tried to bring her team back with two three-pointers which cut the lead to 10, but the night ended on a sour note on a turnover for Round Lake. The regional

Cager
Report

Warren can clinch at least a portion of the North Suburban Conference title at Zion-Benton Feb. 17. The Blue Devils continue to be the top team in this week's Cager Report.

A look at the top five:

Warren: Warren is ranked in almost all Chicago area polls and with good reason. Coach Darrel Bader's team is 18-4 and romped over Mundelein 73-56 for 13-2 NSC record.

Grayslake: Rams get second place nod with 13-8 overall record. Timm West scored 22 points although Greg Groth was not pleased with team's showing in 66-55 win at Wauconda.

Carmel: Coach Scott Rosberg's forces have had a tough time of it in East Suburban Catholic Conference with 4-7 record. But come Saturday nights, the Corsairs are ready and they were again with 71-55 win over Deerfield for 12-9 mark.

Wilmot, Wis: Panthers kept Southern Lakes Conference hopes alive with 67-63 win over Union Grove. Wilmot is 13-4 overall.

North Chicago: Warhawks cling to fifth spot by one game in loss column over Antioch. Warhawks, 12-10 overall and 10-5 in NSC, need to regroup after losing to Antioch at home.

Film Review

Film director Gary Marshall has taken a lot of top-drawer ingredients that include the talented Bette Midler, Barbara Hershey and John Heard, involved them in a sappy soap opera-like script called "Beaches," and come out with a succulent soufflé, that flops the moment it leaves the oven.

Even the great Midler, despite her talent and this chance to do some acting, plus dancing, plus singing, etc., sinks in the mire of an over-feminist story.

One bright spot in this story of two child stars (Midler and Hershey) that remain friends through thick and thin residuals, is the emoting of another child star, Mayim Bialik, who plays Midler going into puberty.

She looks enough like, and apes what could easily have been, Midler at that age, well-enough to have some Midler blood running through her precocious little veins.

The crux of the story is the relationship between the two lead gals when Midler is called upon because her bosom buddy gets a critical movie disease. The three way relationship between both of them and Heard is another important part of the unimportant story.

With the ammunition listed in the credits, this should have been a box-office blowout, but as it stands (or should we say falls flat) it's just a medium splat of entertainment, or a possible two-and-one-half starrer.

Newsletter replaces campfires

What keeps a close-knit family together when the children scatter hither and yon, not only all over the country, but across two continents and even home-base, manned by mom and dad, is moved to another part of the country?

Dana Weber and her family, which she fondly describes as "having 62 legs and 10 zip codes," came up with one of the best answers to date, about a year ago when the family was having a get together in the Rocky Mts.

Dana is a 1964 graduate of Warren Twp. High School, transposed to San Jose, Calif., who still keeps in touch with remaining relatives in that area, especially Uncle Bill Morford of Gurnee.

The idea, according to Weber, is "to teach the children who they are in a larger sense, and to maintain the feeling of family that each of us needs, — to reduce the miles that separate us, to share meaningful changes and events in our lives with each other."

The answer, a family newsletter

Weber's newsletter is named "The Sentinel," and has been in publication quarterly for over a year.

They found that each family member seemed to fit into a certain journalistic niches.

For instance the patriarchs, mom and dad, who had moved from the Warren-Gurnee area to Nebraska, write "From the Heartland," a column which contains whatever message they wish to impart to their family at the time of the writing. Being the family core, "They are the sources of deep family history, now being recorded every three months for the family members' posterity."

This was a natural, but it seems that some of the other "Sentinel" columnists are much more unlikely, like Aunt Gabby, an advice column, written by a brother-in-law who feels he is an expert on trauma, having lived through it all.

Other unlikely contributors include, S. Ports Caster (an 11-year-old cousin in Utah); "Sundays in the Kitchen With Barb" (recipes, etc., from New Jersey daughter); "Little Farm House on the Prairies," from young married in Nebraska.

"The Sentinel" is published in Dana's San Jose home with Dana herself serving as its editor, backed by publisher husband Dan.

Ten-year-old Anne serves as assistant to the older teenage sibling who is circulation manager (responsible for proper addresses) by attaching postage and colorful stickers to the finished product before mailing takes place.

Dana, not only writes the front page, but does the lay-out and paste-up, while the publisher oversees the finances and makes all the important decisions, like what story he can tell on his younger brother in the next issue.

According to Dana, "An important and unexpected result of this down-home publishing effort has been the recording of family legend, folk-lore, myth and fable. In our fast paced modern society, events that need the seasoning of time to become significant no longer can get told and retold around campfires. We can read the family history book now and have a vehicle with which we can show our children, the family face, name significance, and how their single threads fit into the entire tapestry."

Proofreading family newsletter

Amusing stories from family members have editor and publisher, Dana and Dan Weber, smiling satisfied with this issue of "The Sentinel," family newsletter published quarterly.

Britain by boat

by JIM WARREN, PRESIDENT
NORTH STAR TRAVEL, INC.

No, I'm not talking about a Trans-Atlantic crossing aboard the QE2. I'm suggesting a tour of the English countryside by water!

It is a little known fact that the United Kingdom has a 2,000 mile network of narrow canals and small rivers weaving their way through tiny farming hamlets, past friendly pubs, and even an occasional castle. A revival of this method of transportation has taken place in recent years giving the visitor a couple of ways to experience the U.K. much differently than through the windows of a tour bus.

The first method of inland marine transportation is called a "hotel boat". Forget anything even closely resembling an ocean liner. These brightly painted, narrow wooden boats seldom carry more than 10 passengers. The accommodations are basic yet comfortable, with private cabins having hot and cold water, electric lights and a closet. Some, though not all, have private shower and toilet. A well-stocked bar and lounge is standard equipment.

The atmosphere is cozy and informal with guests welcome to help work the many locks and swing bridges. Meals are made from local ingredients with the accent on regional dishes. A typical day would start with early morning tea around 8 a.m. After breakfast in the dining room, the day's cruise begins. Your boat will perhaps moor for lunch at an old canal inn. You will have plenty of time to stroll through the English countryside before casting off again. We must have our afternoon tea with freshly baked cakes (cookies). About 7:30 p.m., we dock for the day and dinner is served. Now let's head for a local English pub for an evening with the locals.

For more adventures, you can charter your own self-skippered canal boat! All include complete kitchen, shower and toilet, electric lighting, radio and TV, and a complete set of maps to point you on your way. You can rent boats sleeping anywhere from two to 10 passengers. They are easy to skipper even with no prior boating experience.

So skip the cramped tour buses and have some real fun touring the United Kingdom!

Just For Seniors

The following are some consumer fraud schemes that have been used successfully among older people: 1) Health insurance policies that appear to pay gaps in Medicare coverage but don't. Check the Better Business Bureau before spending money. 2) Glasses or hearing aids sold at bargain rates by unlicensed salespeople. Ask your doctor's advice if you need to purchase a low-cost appliance. 3) Contributions to charity—Make sure the money goes to a legitimate charity.

of programs, marketing innovations, and opportunities that apply to many facets of everyday life.

Trade Fair is for those who mean business about the way they choose for themselves what they want in their lifestyles: what they buy for a more comfortable environment, where they go for entertainment, how they express themselves to friends and family through gift choices, what they choose to eat and how they choose to have it prepared, how they choose to invest their funds and how they choose to invest their spare time, what they choose to add enrichment in their lives, who they choose to use for repairs or remodeling, and where they choose to go on vacation.

As a matter of fact, where you go on vacation could be determined as a gift, just for attending Trade Fair '89. A free trip for two to Las Vegas for three days and two nights is the grand door prize that could be yours as easily as anyone else's, just because you chose to attend.

vices that can enrich lives through this very business-like way of choosing how that enrichment will occur.

Tiberi, Terry, Herman creating great jazz

by BOB DAVIS

Trumpeter - flugelhornist, Clark Terry, and the Woody Herman Orchestra, directed by Frank Tiberi, are going to produce the weather in North Chicago next Tuesday. The forecast is for the elements to be naturally right, but not conducive to calm. Here's why.

Terry has always had what every young jazz musician dreams of: instant recognition. One electrifying phrase from that hip, happy horn, and you know it is his highly personal steak of musical lightning.

The Herman Orchestra remains what Woody's winners have always been: a collective fireplace. Organized to showcase outstanding soloists in every chair, but also possessed by the burning desire to ride the rhythms as one, this big band is "The Young Thundering Herd."

Put Clark and the Herd together, as the folks in North Chicago are doing, and for sure, they'll be "Blowin' Up a Storm," to quote the First Herd's 1945 classic.

Although Terry played with the Herman Orchestra 28 years ago, he has not been a member of the band since then. Only once before, in a concert in Houston in 1983, have they been reunited. The reunion in North Chicago results from a coincidence in their tours, according to William Clark, director of the city's elementary school band program.

"Mr. Terry will be coming from a tour in Wisconsin with the Lawrence University Jazz Ensemble. The Herman Band has a series of concerts scheduled in Iowa, Indiana, and Illinois," Clark explained. This date happened to be open for them, so we jumped at the chance to present them together. Terry is truly a master of jazz, a phenomena on his horns. The Woody Herman Orchestra is right now considered one of the greatest of his always great bands. Last month they played for President Bush's Inaugural Ball and were nominated for yet another Grammy Award. Three weeks ago, they were a sensation at the Clocktower Jazz Festival in Rockford," Clark said.

A special homecoming ceremony in honor of Terry is planned. From 1943 to 1945 he was a member of the legendary All Star Navy Band at Great Lakes. He then gained the rare distinction of playing with the three greatest big band leaders in jazz history.

"Three years after I got out of the Navy," says

Terry "I joined the Count Basie Orchestra. That was in 1948, and I stayed with the Count until I joined the Duke Ellington Orchestra in 1951. I spent eight beautiful years with the Duke. I then had the pleasure of playing with Woody and the Herd in 1961. What a wonderful, understanding man he was. Unfortunately, we didn't record during that time, which is why most people don't know I was with Woody, as well as County and Duke."

Terry went on to say he is "very pleased with the homecoming plans. I can't wait for this concert and the chance to play the Herd's music again after all those years. Woody's present Herd is one of his greatest. These young players are fantastic; and Frank Tiberi has done a superb job," Terry said.

Woody Herman died on Oct. 29, 1987. It was when he had to be hospitalized in March of that year that he chose Tiberi as the Herd's music director. "Frank is one of the great tenor saxophone players and a fine clarinetist," Woody said at the time. "Most importantly, he's thoroughly familiar with our music, and how the guys should feel playing it." Frank, for his part, says, "I'm only the music director. Make no mistake about it. The leader of this band will always be Woody Herman."

With the master

Long a slide-man in the Woody Herman Orchestra, Frank Tiberi took over leadership of the current HermanHerd upon the death of Herman, right. Tiberi will be leading Herman band in appearance at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, Feb. 21, at North Chicago High School to benefit elementary school music department. Tickets are $10 each, and are available at the school, music stores, and Lakeland Newspapers, 30 S. Whitney St., Grayslake.

THIS WEEK'S

HOROSCOPE

BY SALOME

Weekly Tips: Be tough, and handle problems head on.

Aries (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) The pressure may be on all week. Make use of creative ideas. Introduce yourself to someone whose friendship you have wanted to make.

Taurus (Apr. 20 to May 20) This is one of those times when everyone seems to be on your case. Keep your self-confidence, and don't back away from coming changes.

Gemini (May 21 to June 21) Sleepy periods may make you feel in a lazy mood. The exotic will appeal to you. Resist immature temptations. Find a solid ground.

Cancer (June 22 to Jul. 21) This is a favorable time to shop for clothing. You are in the mood to improve things, so put yourself on the top of the list, and get cracking.

Leo (Jul. 22 to Aug. 21) The course of true love does not always run smoothly. You may be asked to prove your love to someone who wants a commitment.

Virgo (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Shop now and you may have to settle for an inferior substitute. Control your impulses and settle only for the quality you desire.

Libra (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Don't compare yourself to others. Your own standards of comfort and living will serve you best. Avoid keeping up with the Joneses.

Scorpio (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) You are capable of making a strong commitment whether financial, career or to a loved one. Express the depth of your feelings.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) You may need quiet time now after surviving a hectic cycle. Spend extra time with those who could use the pleasure of your company.

Capricorn (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Your charismatic nature will shine at this time. Make progress in love, creative projects and career where things really connect.

Aquarius (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) You have the power of mind now; projects started will get a push from the new moon's position. Look for results in about two weeks.

Pisces (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) You may be feeling the inspiration of the new moon. Make plans to be with understanding friends who can be on your psychic wavelength.

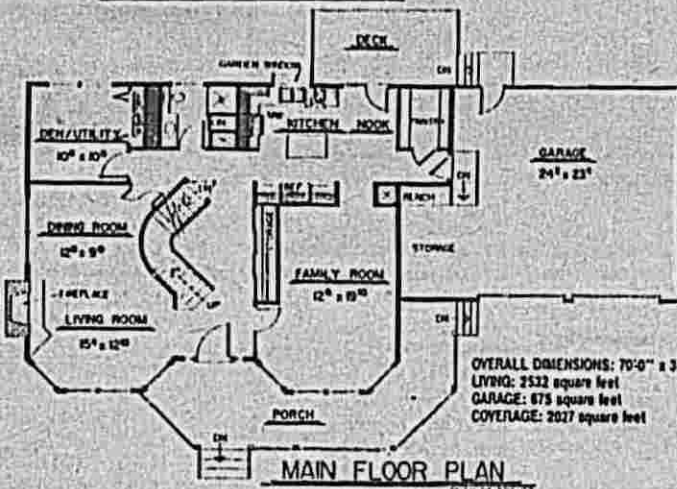

If You Were Born Today, you will be visionary, idealistic and sensitive to the feelings of others. Your kind and accepting nature can easily be stepped on by others. Start to develop artistic talent and spiritual awareness into useful vocations.

WASHINGTON 2

228-02 Washington 2
Landmark Designs
02-10-89

SECOND FLOOR PLAN

MAIN FLOOR PLAN

Thanks to its twin front gables, bay windows, and a large wrap around covered front porch the Washington 2 moved right up to become the third most popular plan for 1988. The main floor is designed to be a busy place, with a living room to one side of the entry, and large family room to the other. At the back is a country kitchen with central island and attached pantry. In good weather, meals can be served on the rear deck accessible directly from the kitchen.

The dining area is indicated at the back of the living room mainly for the aesthetics of having the table by the fireplace and adjacent windows. However, some cooks may prefer to serve in the family room, which is closer to the kitchen.

A den/utility area in the back of the house provides a quiet work space or optional guest room. A half bath tucked between the den and kitchen means that guests don't have to trek all the way upstairs to find the main bathrooms on the second floor. Extra space has been provided in the two-car garage for a shop area or storage. Do-it-yourselfers and home canners will find plenty of room for workbench, freezer, tools and supplies. This storage is in addition to the pantry, linen shelves, and large hall closet.

The upstairs is entirely devoted to sleeping quarters. The master suite includes private bath with raised tub, and a walk-in closet. The two smaller bedrooms share a bath and vanity between them. The master suite and front bedroom both enjoy bay windows similar to the ones that brighten the living and family rooms.

For a study plan of the Washington 2 (228-02), send $5.00 to Landmark Designs, P.O. Box 2307, Eugene, OR 97402. (Be sure to specify plan name & number when ordering). Designers, Architects and readers with plans they would like to see featured also are invited to contact Landmark.

THE HOME GAME

JEFFY DRY — For a really quick drying of pantyhose, hang on an indoor line and blow dry with your hair dryer. You're ready in a fraction of the time!

KICKY SOUP — For a flavor punch to soup add a bit of Dijon mustard to a can of French onion soup. Top with a round of French bread and grated Parmesan cheese, toasted under the broiler.

WINTER WOES — Quickly remove those ugly white spots on leather footwear caused by salt before permanent damage is done. Clean promptly with a neutralizing solution of one tablespoon baking soda to one cup warm water. Dry away from heat and repolish with paste wax.

TAUT TIP — When making buttonholes by hand, use an embroidery hoop to hold the fabric taut. You'll get a much neater look.

INSTANT REMEDY — Soup or stew needs a little more body before dishing it up? Sprinkle in instant potato flakes until you get the desired thickness.

LOOSE ENDS — Double thread that has a knot tied separately in each strand will not tangle as much as the double strand knotted together.

FIRST AID — Minor scuffs and scratches on white woodwork can be touched up quickly with white shoe polish, keeping your home presentable until time to repaint.

DIET CHANGE-UP — If you're tired of eating celery raw, bake it in a microwave or a conventional oven in chicken broth and a little soy sauce. It really is a delicious hot vegetable.

In ancient Greece, no one was born or died on the island of Delos.

Whenever someone became pregnant or ill, she or he was quickly removed from the sacred island and was kept away until nature took its course.

The first operators employed by the Bell Telephone Company were young boys who worked standing up. Only after several years did it occur to anybody to provide them with chairs.

According to the International Association of Art Security, art theft is the second most common crime in the world. The first is narcotics smuggling.

Soup, defense combination pays off for Lady Pats

by STEVE PETERSON
Sports Editor

The recipe began with a little chicken noodle soup. Add to that a heavy dose of strong defense, some clutch (although not entirely accurate) free-throw shooting and Allison Devenish's 18 points and you have a cause to celebrate in Prairie View.

After three misses in regional finals, the fourth proved to be the charm for Coach Phil Raffaelli and the Lady Patriot basketball team, which topped host Barrington 53-44.

Although his team was a senior-dominated bunch, the pre-season discussions among predictors did not include the Pats in the upper echelon. All that was heard in Prairie View was about a team to the north called Libertyville.

"Nobody talked about us. Nobody expected us to do anything but the kids believed in themselves. We felt we were going to have a good ballclub," Raffaelli said.

Senior guard Meri Haucaisen added 13 points.

A late-season flu bug swept the team, but as always this resourceful bunch had the answer, making chicken noodle soup before the games.

Stevenson, 18-9, had to overcome poor free-throw shooting as much as the Fillies before it could celebrate a trip to the Wheeling sectional. The Pats made just five of 16 in the first half but still managed a 27-22 lead. But Stevenson saved its best free-throw shooting for the fourth quarter, making 11 of their 17 to keep the home team at bay.

"I told them at halftime that we are struggling with the free throws but we believed all year we are a good free-throw shooting team all year. When the game is on the line we will hit them. And sure enough we did," Raffaelli said.

Stevenson came out to start the second half ready to make amends for the poor free-throw shooting. Devenish increased the lead to seven and Amy Piggott upped it to 11 with two baskets. The lead stayed at 31-23 for several minutes until another hoop by Devenish scored again after Stevenson called timeout at 4:18 to go.

Stevenson's biggest second half lead came at 34-23 on a Devenish free throw with 2:52 left in the third quarter.

Barrington rallied to cut the margin to five, 34-29, after three.

"We went to a 2-3 offense and we were opening it up off the pick low. We got some easy buckets off of it. That was a big difference in the game," Raffaelli said.

Barrington's Cheryl Hogarty had kept the home team in contention with some marksmanship from three-point range. Inger Krolak led Barrington with 18 points and Lisa Hansen had 10.

"I thought we played pretty good defense. We made them work for their shots," Raffaelli said.

Second-half foul trouble caused a defensive switch to a zone for Stevenson.

"We had Meri and Allie in foul trouble and they're our two ball handlers and Allie had three. If you lose them, we're in big trouble," the jubilant coach said.

"It worked good for us because they were taking a lot of time getting shots off. Time was on our side," Raffaelli said.

Stevenson started the fourth quarter in the same manner as the third. A Butler hoop and another by Devenish put the Pats up by 11, 38-29 with 6:04 left.

Patriots' Devenish proves coming home makes sense

A year ago, Allison Devenish was a frustrated Stevenson High School student.

She would attend games at the Sports Center, but only as a spectator. Although she was a junior, Devenish's status was that of a transfer student from York High School. She would have to wait until November to don the green and white again.

Devenish, who was limited to just a few games of action last year, capped off her return to Stevenson by leading the Pats with 18 points in a 53-44 win over Barrington. The win at Barrington gave the Patriots their first-ever girls basketball regional championship.

As reporters quizzed her at centercourt following the win, Devenish was quick to pass along compliments to others on the team as if she were giving another assist.

"We tried (on defense). It was a team effort, though. Everyone on the bench, the whole team was very supportive. It means a lot to everybody to win a regional championship," Devenish said.

Before the game, the Pats did not know whether their fourth trip to a regional final would bring a different result.

"We did not know what to think. We had not played them (Barrington) before but we heard a lot about them. Being seeded No. 1 doesn't mean much. Coach Raffaelli always stressed to believe in ourselves. The second half of the season we just believed in ourselves," Devenish said.

The Pats, who entered sectional play at Wheeling with an 18-9 record, had some troubles at mid-season which needed to be overcome.

"Coach came in one day to practice and just got us all psyched up," Devenish said.

The Pats' senior guard somehow fittingly scored the final bucket of the game on a layup with 35 seconds left for a 53-42 lead. Barrington then scored its last hoop.

This Patriot group is a close-knit team as evidenced by the final minutes of the game. As the final clicks ticked off the clock, Raffaelli gave low -fives to each of the players and managers on the bench.

Devenish, a 5-7 guard, is one of six seniors on this year's team. Others include high-scoring post players Dorian Graves and Amy Piggott, Karen Butler, who had several key points against Barrington and Tammy Cole.

"A lot of us have been playing since junior high school. We like to work together a lot. I credit the other four more than I because I was not here last year," Devenish said.

In Stevenson's opening-round 54-41 win over Deerfield, Devenish was one of three players to score a "lucky" 13 points. A 19-7 run in the second quarter paved the way.

Memorable season

the 54-41 win over Round Lake, played despite the fact her father had died the Friday before.

Cobb fought back an opponent called a flu bug to score 19 points.

"Where is Crystal, where is Crystal," Libertyville Coach Tom Murphy said repeatedly throughout the game.

While Cobb had her 19 points, the rest of the Warren lineup was held in check. The next highest was six points.

"In the state tournament, you can't afford to have a bad game," Campbell said.

Libertyville used a balanced attack to advance to the sectional final. Brigid Shannon had 13 points and Susan Kittelson 10 for the Wildcats.

Warren started out well and it looked like the Blue Devils may reach the sectional final for the second straight year. Heather Olejcek's basket and a three-pointer by Cobb put Warren up 5-0. Warren still led at 7-4 on a Cobb hoop with 4:07 left in the first quarter.

But Libertyville worked the ball inside and its press forced nine first-quarter Warren turnovers. The Blue Devils did not score for the final 4:07 of the quarter and Libertyville led 15-7 after one.

But as would be the case in the second half, Warren stormed back to close the gap to four on a Melissa Webster hoop. A Cobb basket brought the Blue Devils to within two at 17-15.

Libertyville then went on a 18-11 run and a buzzer beater by Shannon gave the Wildcats a 35-24 halftime lead.

Warren then made its best run at the start of the third quarter.

Two free throws by Christy Baker brought Warren to within four at 40-36 with 2:39 left in the quarter.

"When it was 40-36, I thought we would have a chance," Campbell said.

Libertyville had come into the contest off a string of letting opponents come close but not actually win. Mundelein was the latest example, as the Mustangs tried to rally from 11 points down but only to lose 53-51 in the regional final.

Instead, it proved to be a cruel tease for Warren fans. Being able to apply the knockout punch is a tribute of all winners and Libertyville did just that with a 7-0 run that all but ended Warren's season.

The season ended for Cobb with 2:49 left when she fouled out. Warren fans gave her a well-deserved standing ovation.

Later, at a team gathering at a Cary fast-food restaurant, Cobb was thanked by teammates and parents who know they witnessed a special talent for four years.

It was time to think ahead - talk with an Arizona State assistant about next year and make arrangements for a post-season get together.

Disappointing ending?

Yes.

Worth the trip?

You bet.

PREMIERS MARCH 4TH

Corsairs hope to treat alumni to Saturday win

Carmel High School alumni will be treated to the school's first ever Winter Homecoming after the Corsairs battle Mt. Carmel Feb. 18.

Brats and assorted goodies will be available for the Carmel graduates. Coach Scott Rosberg and the Corsairs are hoping their Saturday night success stories can continue. The Corsairs have had a rough go of it in the East Suburban Catholic Conference, but at least twice have bounced back on Saturdays to post non-conference wins.

The latest victim was Deerfield, who fell 71-55 as Carmel started fast and never looked back. The night before, the Corsairs gave state ranked St. Joseph a battle before falling 55-48.

The split weekend gave CHS a 12-9 overall record,

4-7 in the ESCC.

"St. Joseph is just a super basketball team. We played good games against both teams but the quickness level of St. Joseph is so key," Rosberg said.

The Corsairs, before hosting Mt. Carmel, Carmel travels to Joliet Catholic for an ESCC tilt Feb. 17.

Carmel started and finished well in the win over Deerfield.

Erick Bruksch led Carmel's attack with 19 points, fellow guard Chris

Strachn, Ramig advance

Sue Ramig of Antioch and Michelle Strachn both advanced to the state gymnastics meet at Palatine Feb. 18.

Ramig, a senior, advanced with a sixth-place finish in the vault.

Strachn qualified for the state meet at Palatine with a Mikrut had 18 and Ken Moreano turned in a strong 14-point performance.

"We played well. We did a lot of things we wanted to do," Rosberg said.

Against St. Joseph, Carmel stayed close or had a small lead through three quarters. The Chargers' Deryl Cunningham then took charge and finished with 18 points.

Mikrut had 13 points to lead the Corsairs. Carmel had an accurate night from the free-throw line, making 11 of 13.

9.3 on the floor exercise. Her best is a 9.4.

Mundelein Coach John Mayer was pleased Strachn qualified but thought Kelcey Sullivan also should have advanced.

"We felt Kelcey should have made it," Mayer said.

Three undefeated wrestlers lead state qualifiers

State meet tests are looming for eight area wrestlers - three will bring undefeated records into the

52nd State Wrestling Meet in Champaign Feb. 17 and 18. Johnsbury's Mike Lewis and Sean Kegel won titles at 112 and 119 pounds. Lewis is 37-0 and Kegel 33-0 heading into the state meet.

The third undefeated wrestler is Warren's Mike Frecking, who is 37-0.

Frecking tied the state record for technical falls. He beat Libertyville's Vince Juditta for the championship 6-0.

"That's just his style," Warren Coach Mark Tiffany said.

Warren's Keith Friedman also qualified for the state meet by winning at Mike Bryant of Waukegan West 7-6 at 130 pounds.

"He had to wrestle his best ever and he sure picked a good time to do it," Tiffany said of the 33-4 Friedman.

Grayslake had four chances to advance wrestlers to Champaign and Jeff Walls and Ryan Geist, both juniors, came through.

Walls, 39-1, beat Mike Lyons of Dundee-Crown 5-3 in the championship at 135 pounds. Geist finished third at 140 pounds, topping Lanny Smith of Waukegan East on a pin in 2:24.

"I would be disappointed if they don't finish in the top six," Grayslake Coach Steve Kushner said.

Kushner credited a heavy summer competition schedule as a big plus for the two Rams.

"It was like giving them an extra year of experience," Kushner said.

Near misses for the Rams included Che Kearby, who was fourth at 145 pounds.

The 140 pound weight class proved to be a profitable one for the eight wrestlers as Jim Andersen of Lake Zurich qualified by finishing second. McHenry's Tom Johnson pinned him in 1:20.

Mundelein and Round Lake each will have one representative in Champaign.

Dan Patten pinned Steve Polep of Cary-Grove in 4:54 for third place at 189 pounds.

Mike Pratt of Round Lake finished third at 103 pounds.

Dave Sheppard came close for Antioch, losing a third-place battle to Mike Bloem of Fremd at 135 pounds.

Mustangs play well, but lose to Wildcats

by PETER RECHENBERG
NEWS EDITOR

An offensive rebound basket by Kathy Sterwerf with :20 seconds left in the game was the margin of victory as Libertyville ended Mundelein's season with a thrilling 53-51 victory in the IHSA Girls Regional Championship game.

The regional was hosted by Libertyville High School, but the Mustangs weren't intimidated by Libertyville's 18-0 conference record or the hostile crowd as they jumped out to a 8-2 lead early in the first quarter.

Libertyville's pressing defense was out of control and the Mustangs were able to get underneath the basket for easy hoops. Libertyville's senior guard Brigid Shannon calmed the Wildcats down and got their defense back into sync which helped them get back into the game. The Wildcats scored eight straight points to take a 10-8 lead.

The Mustangs and Wildcats each scored twice and Libertyville had a 14-12 lead. The Wildcats scored the final three points of the first quarter as Brigid Shannon hit a free throw and Jenny Brown scored on a jump shot. Kathy Sterwerf led the Libertyville's comeback with six points in the first eight minutes.

Libertyville extended its 17-12 lead to 27-16 by going on a 10-4 scoring run in the first 4:33 of the second quarter. The Mustangs were able to go on a 6-0 scoring run of its own in the final 2:56 of the half as Libertyville's floor general Shannon was on the bench with three fouls. "We're a completely different team without Brigid on the floor," said Wildcat coach Tom Murphy. "When she was on the bench we didn't score." Libertyville held a 27-22 halftime lead.

Each team scored 10 points in the third quarter and the Wildcats had a 37-32 lead going into the fourth quarter.

The Mustangs came out strong in the fourth quarter as they outscored Libertyville 6-2 in the first 2:23 of the fourth quarter to cut Libertyville's lead to 39-38. Mundelein's first lead since the first quarter came on Ashley Struggles' layup after she received a perfect pass from teammate Susan Musselwhite. Shannon scored for Libertyville to give them a 41-40 lead, but Musselwhite came back with a basket to give Mundelein a 42-41 lead. Jenny Brown and Gina Steff each hit a pair of free throws to give the Wildcats a 45-42 lead that they would never relinquish.

The Wildcats led 50-48 with :20 left in the game. Susan Kittleson hit her first free throw to give the Cats a three point lead. She missed her second free throw, but Sterwerf's basket put the final nail in the Mustangs' coffin. Karen Matuszewski hit a three point shot with two seconds left and then time ran out giving Libertyville a 53-51 victory.

Shannon led the Cats in scoring with 17 points and Sterwerf chipped in with 14 points. Struggles and Musselwhite each had 15 points for the Mustangs.

Mustang Head Coach Perry Wilhelm was happy with what the Mustangs accomplished. "We were only 4-6 in our first 10 games and I thought we were in for a mediocre season," Wilhelm said. "We finished up the season 16-9, but this is a tough way to end our season."

Wilhelm also gave credit to Libertyville. "When you make mistakes against a good team like Libertyville they usually come back to haunt you," Wilhelm said. "We could have quit when we were down by 11, but our kids hung tough and played well. It's too bad our season had to end on a sour note."

CLC women face top team in last home game

College of Lake County's women's basketball team will be up against one of the toughest teams in Region IV when the Lancers host Kankakee Feb. 18.

Game time for the last regular season home game for CLC is 1 p.m.

"We will be able to find out what it is like to go up against a super team," CLC Coach Don Zeman said.

Kankakee was undefeated through 17 games and had the second highest defensive rating in the region.

The Lancers are hoping to be coming into the contest with momentum. They found out what it is like to lose an overtime game and then win one against Elgin and Oakton.

Against Elgin, the Lancers rallied from a 15-point deficit at halftime to forced a tie at 50-50 after regulation. The Spartans' depth then was one of the major factors as the home team allowed just three points by CLC in the extra five minutes.

Crystal Payne had 24 points and Jennifer Robison 12 for CLC.

Two nights later, the Lancers had a chance to experience success in OT against Oakton.

Teri Huntington provided the heroics in the regulation session. Her layup with two seconds left tied the game at 57-57.

Payne then had two hoops in the overtime to tie the contest at 61-61.

Don Zeman

Sherry Waldroup provided the game-deciding points as her free throw with :47 remaining gave the Lancers the 64-61 win. Waldroup finished with seven points while Huntington had 28. Payne also contributed a strong game with 13 points.

"We're starting to play better and get some things done," Zeman said of the win.

The game was a see-saw contest through regulation. CLC had a six-point lead at the end of the first half but Oakton rallied for two baskets in the final 30 seconds to close the gap to 31-29.

In the second half, Oakton opened up an eight-point lead, 43-35, before CLC rallied. Two Huntington gave CLC life, as the Red Raiders margin was reduced to 49-47. Cheryl Geary then tied it up with 4:44 left.

A three-point play by Oakton's Patricia Sikorski gave the visitors a 57-53 lead with 1:21 left.

Morris scores 12 in AU win

Wauconda resident Melba Morris scored 12 points to help Aurora University top Concordia College 68-55.

The win improved Aurora's record in the Northern Illinois Intercollegiate Conference to 5-1. The league-leading Spartans will travel to Rockford College Feb. 18.

Fishermen show talents in NICC annual derby

An estimated 10,000 to 15,000 fishermen participated in the 29th Annual Chain O' Lakes Fishing Derby and Winter Festival held at various lakes on the chain.

Fishermen from throughout Lake and McHenry Counties won awards in derby sponsored by Northern Illinois Conservation Club, Budweiser and Coca Cola.

Lake County businesses participated by donating some 21 items which were auctioned off.

Festival activities were held at the main headquarters while Petite Lake, Lake Marie and Pistakee Lake served as satellites.

Mother Nature cooperated by providing cold spell.

Among the largest fish caught was a 33 and one-eighth inch muskie by Grayslake resident Mike Allenstein; a 24 inch walleye pike caught by Ray Gore of Ingleside; a 20 and one-half inch catfish caught by Don Jones of Des Plaines; a 13 inch striped bass-rock bass caught by Mike Maze of McHenry.

Others include a nine and one-half inch perch caught by Tony Lagrea; a 36 inch Northern Pike snarred by Wasel Mirutko of Round Lake; a 19 and three-quarter inch black bass caught by Joe Gagliardo of Waukegan; a 13 inch crappie caught by Jasi Mitefska; an eight inch bullhead caught by R. Moss of Antioch and an eight and one-quarter inch blue bill sunfish caught by Kelly Slavik of Antioch.

Awards were given for the largest and smallest fish caught at each lake.

St. Therese to hold seminar

St. Therese Medical Center, in cooperation with St. Bartholomew's Parish, will offer a special community education program on Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS). It will be held on Feb. 21, 28 and March 7 at 7:30 p.m. at the Christian Life Center at St. Bartholomew's Parish, 730 S. Lincoln, Waukegan. The program is open to parents, high-school students, parish and school staff members.

The program will feature two videos (shown on large screen television) "Beyond the Labels, the Human Side of AIDS," and "AIDS, What Can I do to Help?". Guest speakers, discussion groups and educational materials will also be part of the program.

"The purpose of the evening is to help dispel irrational fears that surround the topic of AIDS," said Sister Christine Bowman, administrative assistant at St. Therese Medical Center. "The public is bewildered by the disease, its transmission, detection and treatment."

It is imperative that educational efforts be directed toward communicating the truth about AIDS. It is then that fear can begin to subside and discrimination and hysteria will be replaced with a better understanding and compassion of those afflicted with the disease."

For more information on the program, contact Sister Christine at St. Therese Medical Center, (312)360-2665.

ORTHOTIC THERAPY

Many types of foot problems call for orthotic therapy. Either alone or in combination with other methods of treatment, orthotics overcome a wide variety of foot problems.

An orthotic device is an insert which fits into the shoe. It is individually crafted to fit the patient's foot and achieve a specific purpose for that person.

The most common purpose is to improve the way the foot functions while standing, walking or running. It does that by altering the positions and movement sequences of the foot's components. For example, an orthotic can correct a tendency of the foot to turn inward at each step, or relieve stress on muscles or other parts of the foot.

Orthotics are fashioned from leather, cork, synthetics and other materials. The podiatrist selects the appropriate material and customizes the orthotic device to meet the needs of the individual patient.

CHIP to accept applications

Applications for the state's Comprehensive Health Insurance Program (CHIP) will be accepted beginning in mid-March, but eligible individuals can request the necessary forms now, according to State Sen. Jack Schaffer (R-McHenry County).

"Now that funding for CHIP has been approved by the General Assembly, the program is expected to be operational within 90 days," Schaffer said. "However, participation in the program will be based on the funds available, so eligible applicants will be accepted on a first-come-first-served basis."

"It is estimated that the current level of funding should support approximately 2,000 to 3,000 participants," Schaffer continued.

CHIP will help provide affordable health insurance for people with health conditions that make them ineligible for most standard policies or put premiums out of reach. CHIP participants must pay premiums at 135 percent of standard rates. The state has appropriated funds to pay the amount of claims not covered by premiums.

Letters requesting information and applications should be mailed to Rick Carlson, Dept. of Insurance, 320 W. Washington, 4th Floor, Springfield, IL 62767. Applications will be mailed as soon as they are available.

Open-spacers debunk glowing growth study

by JOSEPH SOULAK
NEWS CORRESPONDENT

"Balanced growth pays for itself" claims a highly-touted study released last week. Underwritten by the newly-formed Homeownership Institute of Chicago, it attempts to show that development and growth do not have the adverse fiscal impact claimed by open-space advocates.

The 146-page study was done by the Residential Planning Corp. of Chicago. "The Homeownership Institute was formed to study the problems and advantages associated with balanced growth," said a press release accompanying the study. The organization is affiliated with the Homebuilders Assn. of Greater Chicago and other, unidentified, metropolitan construction-related associations.

"All you have to do is see who is funding this study to know where it is coming from," Libertyville Twp. Sup. F.T. "Mike" Graham said. He is chairman of the first and only township open-space district in Illinois and generally considered the open-space champion of Lake County in his added position as a County Board member on the Forest Preserve Dist.

"It's curious some of the statistics and communities focused on are Grayslake and Libertyville," County Board Chairman Norman Geary of Grayslake said. "Graham and I have been pushing the open-space cause for years. This is just another effort to zero in on us."

The study points out that: "Contrary to the charges of anti-growth interests...the fiscal impact of balanced is:"

- * Growth does pay for itself.
- * Rate of increase in property tax rates is often slower in growing communities than in no-or slow-growth communities.
- * Growth is not the principal cause of tax and expenditure increases—revenue shortages are happening everywhere.

"There's a lot of rhetoric that blames revenue shortages on high growth," said Steven Hovany, author of the study and former planning director for the city of Schaumburg. "But the lesson of this study is that, in communities that encourage growth and have the vision to plan for its effects, balanced growth more than pays for itself."

Geary immediately took issue with Hovany on this score.

He pointed out a study earlier this year of impact fees in Naperville by a Rutgers university professor, Dr. David Listokin. It concluded the builder of a four-bedroom home should pay fees of more than $4,600 to offset the future costs to the municipality, schools and park district.

"The newest study is a joke," Geary continued. "Schools are particularly impacted. Eleven county school districts will seek increases this spring. Woodland School got a 55-cent tax increase two years ago and is now asking for another 95 cents just to hold its own. Ask the superintendent there what he thinks of growth. Or ask the same question of the Grayslake school superintendent."

Grayslake last fall increased impact fees from $15,000 per acre to $25,000, Geary noted.

Graham called some school districts "borderline bankruptcy." He went on to note the College of Lake County is another school seeking a tax increase this spring.

"The homebuilders of Cook County look upon Lake County as their marketplace," the Libertyville supervisor said. "If what these people say is true, tax bills should be going down, not up. Schools and other taxing bodies should be rolling in the money."

Graham said the homebuilders will "try everything they can to stop or stall the open-space movement. If they can gain one, two or more years they can reap more profits."

This study debunks two commonly-held and related notions, the authors said. "One, that balanced development and growth don't generate enough revenue to finance associated public costs. And, two, that growth necessarily carries a high price tag."

There is no statistical relationship between the rate of municipal growth and increase in local property taxes, the study continues. For example, from 1980 to 1986, the Village of Lake Villa grew by 35.43 percent and its tax rate increased by 1.62 percent. At the same time, Grayslake grew by 6.53 percent and its tax rate grew by 21.34 percent. The study concludes from these figures "the lack of any pattern governing the relationship between growth and higher taxes."

As growth rates in townships increase, the study goes on to say, tax rate increases tend to slow. As an example, it says from 1980 to 1986, the population of Lake Villa Twp. grew by 9.81 percent and the tax rate by 1.62 percent. At the same time, the study notes, Vernon Twp.'s population grew by 21 percent, while its tax fell by 27.99 percent.

Tests were applied to all Lake County communities, school districts and townships with a particular focus on Grayslake and Libertyville.

"Impact fees are a hot issue," Geary said. "They well could become a legal issue. Why do people get so upset when they get their tax bills. Why are the people of Lindenhurst so upset with the new park district and Millburn School Dist.? Is this happening because growth is paying its way?"

Carmel gets $30,000 grant

The Sisters of Charity of the Blessed Virgin Mary (BVMs) have just announced a grant to Carmel High School of $30,000, according to Sister Helen Garvey, president of the Order. The grant is intended to purchase various conditioning apparatus.

With the proliferation of sports for girls following the implementation of Title IX during the 1970s and the resultant high level of competition following this Act, it has become necessary to do everything possible to enhance conditioning and performance, said Fr. Bill Harry, president of Carmel. "We are very grateful to the BVMs for this important addition to our girls' sports program," he added.

Top modelmaker

William Gough shows off one of his prized possessions - a model airplane in his former collection room in his Chicago home. Gough, who is retired, has moved to Gurnee but is keeping his favorite hobby going. Gough is a member of the Academy of Model Aeronautics Hall of Fame.

Gough has one hobby which really takes off

Like most boys at the time, William Gough Jr. had a hobby.

While others were pretending to be firemen, policemen, doctors, etc., Gough was beginning his avocation of building and/or designing airplanes. Now, not the 747s which fly in and out of O'Hare International but the model variety, the kind that one can hang in the living room.

While most youngsters' hobbies faded away into the reality of the work-a-day world, Gough kept his going. And this past summer this perseverance was rewarded when he was named to the Academy of Model Aeronautics Hall of Fame.

"It's like the baseball hall of fame but harder to get into," the Gurnee resident joked.

With one step into Gough's apartment at Brookhaven Apartments off O'Plaine Rd., the hobby is obvious. A large table is situated in the center of the room with the latest design work. Flight patterns are over by the chair next to the television. Model airplanes of all sizes are on the walls, plainly visible.

In order to achieve the honor of being named to the hall of fame, Gough first had to acquire a sponsor and was then selected through a careful screening process.

Gough likes the quiet of Gurnee these days as the former model designer may concentrate on his hobby.

"I lived in the Edgewater neighborhood of Chicago but left because of the air pollution. I'm enjoying my hobby in Gurnee," Gough said.

Gough does not use the battery packs to power his models, as they can range from $500 to $2,000 in price.

Gough's planes are powered by two strands of three-64th inch square rubber bands and the size will vary in model size and weight. Air speed, creating an air flow lifting pressure over the wing surfaces provides the mechanism which lifts the planes into the air. A rubber powered model airplane can achieve 100 revolutions per minute or less.

The very light models do not fly fast because of their light nature, requiring very little power to move them. A rudder, turned to one side, makes the airplanes turn.

After a few trips around the living room, the plane will hit a lamp, chair or furniture. But because it is going so slowly it is not damaged.

One of the oldest models in Gough's vast collection is a 1928 Garber designed by a curator of the Smithsonian Institution.

Gough once turned his model airplane building skills into a column which appeared in the Chicago Sun-Times in the late 1930s and early 1940s.

Gurnee residents will be able to view Gough's airplane model making in person when he presents a program at Warren-Newport Public Library in May.

Lakewood Preserve may add 638 acres

by JOE SOULAK
NEWS CORRESPONDENT

Negotiations between the Lake County Forest Preserve Dist. and owners of 638 acres northeast of Wauconda may end a simmering feud between the two public bodies.

In case the talks go nowhere, the Forest Preserve has scheduled a meeting for Tuesday, Feb. 21, to proceed with condemnation and purchase of the land. It will be in the 10th floor board room of the Lake County Courthouse at 9 a.m.

This meeting follows cancellation of a special Forest Preserve Dist. meeting called for Feb. 14 to proceed with the acquisition. All board members were not given the required 24-hours notice for a special call. Since this could have jeopardized any action taken at the meeting, it was decided to reschedule it for one week later.

Wauconda trustees are scheduled to discuss annexation of 429 acres of the same property at a meeting the following day.

"There is no sense in fighting over something that is really for the public good," said F.T. "Mike" Graham of Libertyville, chairman of the Forest Preserve's Land Acquisition Committee. He said neither price nor the amount of acreage is an issue. "The owners apparently have their own idea about whether their land be in county or village hands," Graham said. "Personally, I think the people of Wauconda do not want to see 600 more homes at the expense of more auto trips and new school buildings."

Of the 429 acres, 40 are owned by Peter Tekampe and the remaining 589 acres by the family of the late John Epstein of the Grayslake Gelatin Co.

Tekampe said he has been trying for almost one year to annex his property to Wauconda.

The 638 acres being eyed by the Forest Preserve Dist. is referred to as the "Countryside Property" because it is part of a 1,500 acre parcel once designated for purchase to link the Lakewood and Countryside forest preserves near Mundelein. The 638 acres is at the north edge of the Lakewood Forest Preserve, the largest preserve in Lake County.

It extends from Fairfield Rd. nearly to Fremont Center north of Rte. 176.

Graham said this link may no longer be viable or possible. However, he would like to see the Lakewood Forest Preserve expanded with the 428-acre acquisition.

At a meeting of the Forest Preserve Dist. last Friday, closed-door negotiations with the owners were not successful. Tekampe reportedly told members his attorney advised him such talks could jeopardize annexation by Wauconda.

At the regularly-scheduled meeting of the Forest Preserve Dist. on Friday, Feb. 17, three other acquisitions will be considered. They are:

*18.5 acres for $347,000 from the Arndt family at the northwest corner of the Lakewood Forest Preserve.

*56.7 acres in Newport Twp. at the northwest corner of Van Patten Woods from the Mossman family.

*26.5 acres on Washington St. at the southeast corner of the Rollins Savanna in Avon Twp.

New ballot pages here to stay: Hess

"At the November election, voters may have noticed a change in the ballot pages," remarked Lake County Clerk Linda Hess. "The type was larger and easier to read—and something not as obvious but just as important—much more cost effective and efficient. The ballot pages are now being printed by computer right here in the County Building in Waukegan, rather than being sent out to a printer.

"This was begun as a pilot project for the November election, and after evaluating its success," Hess continued, "We've found enormous cost savings in keeping it. We're saving at least $3,000 per election in printing and staff costs, and the savings will escalate as our staff gets better at the process. And many voters (especially senior citizens) have commented how much easier it was to read, so we feel there is great value in making this process routine.

"Another advantage to printing the pages right here is our improved ability to make last minute changes to the ballot. We have more flexibility if the work is being done here than when it is sent to an outside printer. And the changes are less costly if we can do it ourselves. So we feel we have accomplished a great deal by implementing this new system of printing the pages, and we plan to keep it," said Hess.

Jail tours set for weekend

Open house tours will be conducted at the Robert H. Babcox, Justice Center this weekend, Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 18 and 19.

The tours, which are free and open to the public, will take place from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. daily. The justice center is located at 25 S. Utica St. in Waukegan.

Another strike?

Lake County bowlers are gathering at Bertrand Lanes in Waukegan for the 60th annual Lake County Bowling Assn. tournament. The tourney is co-sponsored by Stroh's Beer and Fred Losch Distributors. Doubles and singles competition will be held Feb. 25 and 26. - Photo by Thomas Wolfe.
